

DENTON PUBLIC LIBRARY

RULES OF CONDUCT

Effective February 2, 2007

Approved by the Library Board, August 28, 2006
Library Board approved revisions, September 11, 2023

POLICY STATEMENT: Individuals using the library and its resources have the right to expect a reasonably clean, safe and comfortable environment that supports appropriate library services. In order to protect these rights, the users of the Denton Public Library are expected to comply with the Rules of Conduct listed in this directive.

The Rules of Conduct applies to all library premises, including buildings, interior and exterior, and all grounds controlled and operated by the Denton Public Library. The Rules of Conduct applies to all individuals entering the library or who are on the library premises.

Any person who violates Rules 1-3 listed below while in or on library premises will be immediately reported to the appropriate law enforcement agency and will be ejected and issued a Trespass Warning on City Property from the Denton Police for all Denton Public Library premises and a library suspension.

Any person issued a Trespass Warning on City Property who then re-enters any Denton Public Library location is subject to arrest. The Trespass Warning on City Property prohibition from entering any Denton Public Library shall be effective from the date of the offense.

A library suspension results in exclusion from all library premises and the loss of all library privileges during the suspension period. The library suspension shall be effective from the date of the offense.

Any person issued a Trespass Warning on City Property is excluded from all library premises for a period specified in City of Denton Policy 500.08 Trespass Warning on City Property. A library suspension of one year will also be issued with any Trespass Warning on City Property is issued. Any adult person issued a library suspension is excluded from all library premises and shall lose all library privileges for a period of one year. Minor (teens 11-17) offenders may be issued a library suspension for periods of 30, 60, 90 days or six months as determined by library employees.

With approval by the Director of Libraries, persons who commit especially egregious offenses or exhibit an ongoing threat to the community may have a library suspension extended for an additional year for a total of a two-year enforcement period.

The following are violations of the Library's Rules of Conduct:

1. Commits or attempts to commit any activity that would constitute a violation of any federal, state, or local criminal statute or ordinance.
2. Is under the influence of any controlled substance or alcoholic beverage.
3. Possesses, sells, distributes or consumes any controlled substance or alcoholic beverage, except as allowed at a City-approved and permitted event where the person is legally authorized to sell, distribute, or consume alcoholic beverages.

Any person who violates the following rules listed below while in or on library premises may be given one warning at the discretion of Library staff. If the person fails to adhere to the warning, then the person will be asked to leave the premises for the day. Subsequent offenses by that person may result in an issuance of a library suspension or Trespass Warning on City Property and immediate ejection and exclusion from all Denton Public Library premises.

4. Engages in conduct that disrupts or interferes with the normal operation of the library or that disturbs library staff or individuals. 24. Any individual whose bodily hygiene is offensive so as to constitute a significant nuisance to other persons will be required to leave the building until such time as the condition is corrected.

Procedure for Library Suspension Appeals

Persons may request a review of a library issued library suspension based on the following procedures. An appeal must be submitted in writing to the Library Suspension Review Committee as visits in person to any Denton Public Library location are prohibited.

The written appeal must be received at the following address within 30 days of the date the notice is issued. This appeal process shall only apply to any library suspension issued by a library employee and shall not apply to a Trespass Warning on City Property issued by a police officer.

Denton Public Library
Attn: Library Suspension Review Committee
502 Oakland Street
Denton, TX 76201

The appeal must include a physical or e-mail address at which the library may correspond in writing with the individual making an appeal. The Review Committee, comprised of members of the Denton Library Board, will review timely filed appeals at their regularly scheduled meeting, and make a recommendation to the Director of Libraries, who will respond in writing within 60 days of the receipt of the appeal.

Information regarding the process to appeal a Trespass Warning on City Property is available in City of Denton Policy 500.08 Trespass Warning on City Property and provided on the Trespass Warning document that is provided to the person receiving the Trespass Warning on City Property.
