THE DEATH OF A. E. ALLEN. OLD TIME RESIDENT OF COUNTY DIES HERE WHILE VISITING RELATIVES. ELMER ALLEN HAD LIVED HERE MANY YEARS AGO. Funeral Held Here Yesterday Morning Under the Auspices of the Masonic Order. The death of A. E. Allen occurred at 7:00 o'clock Wednesday morning at the home of his son-in-law, Mr. E. B. Peter, on West Oak street, after an illness lasting for several weeks. Mr. Allen, although one of the oldest residents of this county has resided in the state of Washington for nearly twenty years, having left Denton to make his home at Pomeroy, Washington, in the year 1887. Several weeks ago, as announced in this paper at the time, Mr. Allen came to Denton county on a visit to his relatives, and also with the hopes that the change would be beneficial to his health. The deceased was at the time of his death 76 years and two months old. He was here in the state of Tennessee on February 18, 1800 and was 31 years of age when he came to Texas and settled for a short time in Collin county. later moving to Denton county. He married in December, 1858, to Miss Angelina Howe of McKinney. He was in business in the town of Denton in the early days being a member of the firm of Allen & Carruth, and the old residents of the town and county will remember their dealings with him and the sterling character of the man and citizen.

The deceased served in the Confederate Army during the Civil War and distinguished himself as a soldier and patriot on the frontier. Heart failure was the cause of death. The following children survive him: Ben F. Allen, of Vernon, Mrs. E. B. Peter of this city, R. E. and Henry Allen, Mesdames Sallie Strain, Minale Hiack, and Jessie Burch of Pomeroy, Washington, and Tom Allen of Spokane, Washington. Mr. Allen was a life-long member of the Masonic order and the funeral yesterday morning was held under the auspices of Stanfield Lodge No. 217 of this city, the Interment being at the Odd Fellows cemetery. -Denton County News, March 24, 1905, p.1, c.3.

MORTUARY. ALLEN -Denton, Tex., March 22. -A. E. Allen of Pomeroy, Wash., died here this morning, aged 75 years. He came to this State from Tennessee in 1851, living in Collin, then Wise, and later this county up to 1887, when he moved to Washington, where he had since resided. He married Miss Angeline Howe of McKinney in 1858 and eight children, all grown and living in this State and Washington, survive him. -Dallas Morning News, March 25, 1905, p.11.

WILLIAM ANDERSON KILLED. A Railroad Engine Strikes his Head Crushing It. -Last Thursday night the North bound passenger train, which passes through Denton struck a bridge man by the name of William Anderson, on the head causing his immediate death. It seems that Anderson had been riding a railroad velocipede and was trying to get it off the track but slipped, the pilot of the engine striking him. The engineer of the passenger train stated that he saw the object on the track too late to stop the train. 'Squire R. H. Hobkins viewed the remains Friday morning and rendered his verdict. The remains were brought to Denton and a local undertaker took the remains in charge. A brother of Anderson came up from Itasca Saturday and took the remains to that city for interment. -Denton County News, March 30, 1899, p.1, c.3.

WAS KILLED INSTANTLY. William Anderson, a Texas and Pacific Bridgeman, Killed by an Engine. -William Anderson, a member of the Texas and Pacific bridge gang at Mingo, was run into and killed at that place at 11:45 o'clock Thursday night by the Missouri, Kansas and Texas passenger train No. 4. The back of his head was crushed in, his face scarred and his body badly bruised all over, the shock throwing his body nearly 90 feet. The wound in the head caused his death, which was almost instantaneous. Anderson had been to Denton and was returning to his quarters at Mingo on a railroad velocipede. He was only a few hundred feet this side of the station when the engine struck him. The velocipede was torn to pieces. The engineer of No. 4 says he saw Anderson just before he was struck, but as the velocipede was then only about 60 feet away he was unable to stop the train in time to avoid the collison. The remains were picked up and carried to the bridge gang cars, where they were viewed by Squire Hopkins Friday, whose verdict was in accordance with the facts stated above. Anderson was a single man about 45 years of age and had relatives, it is said, in Hillsboro and also at Plano.

The remains were brought here Friday evening and turned over to a local undertaker. A brother arrived Saturday morning and took the body to Itasca, where the funeral took place Sunday. -Record and Chronicle, March 30, 1899, p.5, c.1.

PILOT POINT DEATHS. J. W. Arthur, an Old and Respected Citizen Recently Died - Two-Year-Old Child Dead Also. -J. W. Arthur, an old and respected citizen died at his home in this city last Saturday evening at 6:15 of lung trouble after an illness of several months. Mr. Arthur had been in declining health for two or three years, but kept up until a few months ago when his case grew more serious and from which he could not rally and passed away quietly at the time of above stated and Pilot Point loses one of its best citizens. J. Whitfield Arthur was born in Callaway county, Mo., in March 1845, came to Pilot Point in 1874 where he continued to reside until his death. He was united in marriage to Miss Caroline Boyd, of Calloway county Mo., in 1855. Their children Robert Arthur of Denison, Marvin of Dallas, and Miss Winnie, all of whom, with their mother, were at the bedside at the time of his death. Mr. Arthur was a member of the Knights and Ladies of Honor and a member of the Cumberland Presbyterian church. He was a good man and had a host of friends who regret his death and who deeply sympathize with the bereaved family in their trying hour. The funeral was held Sunday afternoon, services being conducted by Rev. A. J. French. -Denton County News, Feb. 25, 1904, p.4, c.4.

Mrs. Elizabeth J. Bates was bor	n in Barron county, Kentucky,	December 13, 1819, a	nd was married to the	e late W. H. Bates Decer	nber 9, 1837. The young couple moved to Texas in the fall of 1852	, and settled near Nacogdoch	es, but moved from the	ere in the fall of 1853	to Denton county, settli	ng near Bates, in the eastern part of the county, where they lived for	r many years. They afterward	ls moved to Denton wh	nere her husband, the	late W. H. Bates, our po	stmaster at one time. Deceased had been a member of the M. E. C	hurch, South, since 1850, and	had ever been a zealo	ous Christian mother, l	loved and respected by (all who knew her. She was one of the early settlers of Denton county	y, and had witnessed the long	and bitter struggle of	the South, the pionee	r days of Texas, when th	ne Indian roamed over the prairies, and the later days of peace when	the reaper and the plow came	e to make the country i	what it is today. Ever	and always she was a k	ind and loving mother and a woman of honor and worth. She I	leaves nine children to mourn	her loss, besides nume	erous grandchildren-si.	x sons, R. H., C. W. and.	I. D. Bates, of this city, John H.

BEAL, W. H.				July 13, 1884

A bloody tragedy occurred at about 1 o'clock on the morning of July 13th. At that hour two pistol shots rang out on the still air, followed by three more. A few straggling people out on the streets and several patrolmen hastened to the house whence the sounds came, and were shown by the thoroughly aroused and bewildered inmates, to a room in the third story. The door was locked on the inside, but yielded to the heavy pressure of several men, and the eye beheld under the brightly beaming gas, two dead bodies lying side by side, and two feet apart. In the privacy of their room, W. H. Beal, mailing clerk for Sanger Bros., and J. B. Strange, book-keeper for Mitchell & Scruggs, had engaged in a hot dispute, then a scuffle, destructive to tables, chairs, bed clothes and other articles in the room occuppied by them, and then died each from a pistol shot in the region of the heart. Two pistols of 38-callibre lay by the bodies, showing that each man had a weapon. Beal lay naked, save his drawers, in a pool of blood, and Strange divestedof coat and shoes, presented an equally ghastly sight. Both were promising young men under 30 years of age, holding responsible positions in business, and were devoted friends for four years, most of that time roommates. Both were Viriginians. Alvord Messenger, Aug. 8, 1884, p.3, c.4.

BEALE, J. R.

PROMINENT CITIZEN OF LLOYD FOUND DEAD IN BED. J. R. Beale Well and Favorably Known Over County Thought to Have Died From Heart Failure. J. R. Beale, a prominent citizen of the Lloyd community and well and favorably known over the entire county was found in his bed Sunday morning after life had expired by members of his family. Death is thought to have resulted from heart failure. He had not been feeling well for several days but was not in a dangerous condition from his illness and a doctor had never been summoned to treat him. His life expired some time between 12 o'clock and daylight when the dead body was found in the bed. >The deceased was 48 years of age last May and is survived by his wife and six children. Mrs. Lillian Patterson of lloyd, Mrs. Ione Cates of Garza, and four boys at home, Robert, George, Jim and Kearby Beale. Mr. Beale was secretary of the Little Elm, Masonic Lodge and was also secretary of the Cottonwood Cemetery Association where the Masonic Lodge of Little Elm conducted the burial services Sunday afternoon. >The funeral services were conducted at the pavillion at the cemetery by Rev. Mr. Sweeney of Fort Worth, who is conducting a meeting at the Christian church there, after which the Masons took charge of the burial services. >People from all parts of the county attended the funeral and burial services and the crowd present was estimated at about 500. Ten automobile loads from Denton were in attendance. Past Grand Master S. M. Bradley conducted the masonic burial service. -The Chronicle, Aug. 25th? of 1897.

BEALE, J. W.	Weatherford		Jan. of 1881

J. W. Beale, a carpenter that lived on Garrett's Creek last year was arrested some time ago in Parker county on a charge of forgery and confined in jail at Weatherford, where he committed suicide. He wrote an affectionate letter to his wife before committing the fatal deed, charging his misfortunes to the dangerous and devilish seductions of the Demon, Strong Drink. -Paradise Messenger, Jan. 21, 1881, p.3, c.3.

BEALE, Robert T.	Chico	68 yrs. Old	Aug. 20, 1899

MORTUARY. BEALE - Denton, Tex., Aug. 21. -Robert T. Beale, one of the pioneer settlers of Denton county and a prominent citizen of the Little Elm community, in which he lived, died at Chico, Wise county, Sunday, aged 68 years. -Dallas Morning News, Aug. 26, 1899, p.4.

MORTUARY. BLOUNT-Denton, Tex., June 28.-Mrs. Jessamine Kearby Blount, a daughter of the late E. P. Kearby, and wife of Dr. James P. Blount, a prominent banker and physician of this city, died at the family home here at 1 o'clock this morning, aged 49 years. The deceased has been dangerously ill and bedridden for the last seven months and her death was not unexpected. She was a sister of Hon. Jerome c. Kearby of Dallas and Hon. J. G. Kearby of Wills Point, Van Zandt County. Surviving her are a husband and three children. -Dallas Morning News, June 29, 1900, p.6.

AN AGED RESIDENT DEAD. One of the Oldest Citizens of Denton Passes Away Last Night. -After a lingering illness, which had lasted through many months, Judge J. M. Blount quietly passed away at the family residence on South Elm street in this city, last night. Judge Blound had been a resident of Denton for about forty two years and had always been closely identified with the interest of the city, county and state, until on account of his health, he was compelled to retire from active business life. He had been honored by the citizens politically, holding the office of Chief Justice of Denton county in its early days and later being elected to the State Senate. On account of his sterling worth he had always enjoyed the confidence and esteem of all with whom he was connected. He was 77 years of age and leaves his wife and four children besides a large number of grand and great-grandchildren. He was a member of the Masons, which order will probably conduct the funeral rites, and also the Odd Fellows. The interment will take place at the City Cemetery tomorrow morning at ten o'clock after the service at the family residence. - Denton County News, Feb. 23, 1899, p.1, c.3

JUDGE BLOUNT DEAD. He Died at His Home Last Night - An Old Settler. -Judge J. M. Blount, a pioneer citizen of Denton county, and in his prime one of the prominent men of North Texas, died at his home on South Elm street at 7:55 o'clock last night. He was a few months past 76 years of age. Death was caused by cancer, from which he had suffered for a long time, superinduced by a severe attack of la grippe, which his enfeebled constitution was unable to stand. His second wife and his four living children were with him when the death summons came. Judge J. M. Blount was born in Mississippi in 1822. In 1840 he was marrie to Miss Sophie Caudle and they lived in Mississippi until 1856, when they moved to Texas, settling in Denton county. With Judge Carroll, Judge Welch and others, Judge Blount laid out the city of Denton. He was elected county judge a few years after his arrival in Denton county which position he held for several terms. In 1866, he ran for and was elected to the state senate, but, with the other state officials elected at that time, was removed by the Federal government as being inimical to the progress of reconstruction. After that time he also held several minor city and county offices. He was a Royal Arch Mason and a consistent member of the First Baptist church. He was a man well liked by everybody who knew him and was a man whom anybody could implicitly trust and was a good example of the pioneers who are responsible for the development of such a country as this. Surviving him, besides his wife, are four children - Mrs. J C Smith, Keller, Mrs. C W Gears, Mrs. Alvin C Owsley, and Dr. J P Blount of Denton. The burial will take place at the city cemetery to-morrow, Friday morning. -Denton County Record and Chronicle, Feb. 28, 1899, p.8, c.5

MORTUARY. BLOUNT-Denton, Tex., Feb. 23. -Judge J. M. Blount, a pioneer citizen of Denton county, and in his time one of the prominent men of north Texas, died here at 8 o'clock last night, aged 76 years. Death was caused by cancer from which he had suffered for a long time and which was superinduced by an attack of la grippe, which his enfeebled condition was unable to stand. He was born in Mississippi in 1822, was married in 1840 and moved to Texas in 1856, settling in Denton county and being one of those who surveyed and laid out the city of Denton. Afterward he was elected county judge, in which position he served several yearas, and in 1866 was elected to the state senate; but, with the other officers elected at the time, was removed by the federal government as being inimical to the progress of reconstruction. He was also elected to several minor city and county offices. He was a Royal Arch Mason and a Baptist. Surviving him are a wife and four children - Mrs. J. C. Smith of Keller, Mrs. C. W. Geers, Mrs. Alvin C. Owsley and Dr. J. P. Blount of Denton. -Dallas Morning News, Feb. 24, 1899, p.5.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT. To the Worshipful Master, Wardens and brethren of Stanfield Lodge No. 217 A. F. & A. M., Denton, Texas: BRETHREN - We have been appointed a committee of this lodge to report suitable resolutions upon the death of Hon. J. M. Blount, past master and a member of this lodge, and we beg leave to report the following preamble and resolutions, feeling as we do so that we shall but imperfectly fulfill the duty assigned [very lengthy letter] -Denton County News, March 9, 1899, p.1, c.2

WILL PREACH MEMORIAL SERMON. DENTON, Tex., March 17. -Rev. Walter C. Lattimore will preach a memorial sermon on the life of Judge J. M. Blount, who died here recently at the First Baptist church Sunday, March 26, at 11 a.m. -Dallas Morning News, March 18, 1899, p.8.

born in Carroll county, state o	of Mississippi, and at the age of eig	ghteen married Miss Sc	pphia Candle, and in the	year of 1856, came t	o Denton county. In about the vear 1858 he moved to the to	own of Denton, where he has ever	since resided. He was	ever known for his sterl	ing integrity and stur	diness of character. His fellow citizens recognized his worth	and elected him to offices of trust	. He was Chief Justice ((county judge) of Dento	n county during our lo	ate civil war. He served several terms as justice of the peace,	and also as recorder for the city of	of Denton. he served or	ne term as state senato	r of this senatorial dis	trict. James M. Blount dared to ight under every circumstan	ce and condition of life. He was a	member of the Americ	an Legion of Honor, a R	oyal Arch Mason and	a consistent and consecrated Christian. He gave his soul to	Christ in his sixteenth year, and u	nited with the Baptists	and about the year 185	58 joined the First Bap	otist church of Denton, to whom gave the light of his love and	counsel for more than forty years.	. Together with W. G. \	Nilson, J. B. Brandon, W	/m. A. Clark and J. R. I	McCormick, the first three of nurch triumphant above, he was e	- up to the time of his death. I	lis life, love, counsel and financial	aid did much to build u	p the cause of Christ no	t only in the city of De	enton and Denton county, cut als
n the areat field bevond. He	e left to survive him his wife, Mrs.	Aleta Blount. whom he	married in 1869, and fo	our children. Mrs. Luc	v C. Smith. Mrs. Louisa S. Geers.

MRS. BOYD'S DEATH. Death Came		_
Boyd, a prosperous farmer living one a	nd a half miles south of th	is place, fell dead abo	out 11 o'clock yesterdo	ıy. Her husband was in	bed sick and she had gone into the garden to gather up some wood pr	reparatory to starting a fir	e to cook dinner and	was absent about five	minutes, when her mot	her-in-law walked to the door an made the discovery. She gave the alar	m, but when members of	the family reached th	e body life was extinct	. Physicians were sumr	noned and made a careful examination and gave it as their opinio	on that death came from a	poplexy, as there we	re no bruises or marks	to be found on the bod	y to indicate any external violence, although it is the opinion of s	ome that she was kicked b	y a young pet mule ir	n the garden. Decease	ed was 37 years of age o	and leaves a husband and five

A SUDDEN DEATH. A Texas and P	acific Brakeman Falls From	an Engine and Killed.	About 5 o'clock last S	Saturday afternoon a br	akeman by the name of Bridges, who was assisting in switching in the	e yard in this city, became b	enumbed by the cold	and was run over by t	he train. It seems that	Bridges was riding on the pilot of the engine and fell off and was run o	over before any one knew th	hat he was gone. The	trainmen missed him	and upon looking back	saw him by the track. He was cut nearly in two, the engine having run	over the middle of the bod	y and one hand. The r	nan was already dead	l when picked up by the	train crew. Another brakeman on the train stated that the parts of the	body which was mashed w	vas frozen to the rails.	The train crew carried	d the body to the freigh	t depot, where Justice Selman of Pilot Point, held an inquest over the	remains Sunday morning, J	ustice Hopkins having	been too ill to hold th	e inquest. Bridges was	a new man on this division, this being the first trip that he had made	over it. His home was at B	Bonham, having moved	d there a short time bo	ack from Dry Grove, Mis	ss., where his parents reside. The body was held here for instructions f	rom his family, but they live	ed in the country and a	could not be heard fro	m and it was interred in	n the City cemetery yesterday after services at the First Baptist church	-Denton County News, Feb.	16, 1899, p.7, c.3.

OBSEQUIES AT PILOT POINT. PILOT	POINT, TEX., Jan. 8There	is a universal feeling of	f sadness to-day over	the death of Frank Cadv	vell, aged 15 years, the son of H.
D. Cadwell, THE GAZETTE correspon	dent. Frank, was a decided	favorite, most especia	lly with his father's c	ustomers, who will long	cherish the memory of the oleasant face and unpretending ma	nner of the boy as he gradu	ally assumed the work	and responsibility of	manhood. There was a	very large attendance at the funeral to-day at 2 o'clock. Dr. Fran	klin's entire school, of whicl	n Frank was a member,	, formed in processio	n at the seminary, and p	roceeded to the residence. The services were conducted by the past	tor of the Methodist church,	at the close of which t	the entire attendance	proceeded to the ceme	tery. Thrice have these worthy

A MAN SUICIDES. Uses a Pistol for the	Destruction of His Life	e - Attempts to Take the	Life of AnotherI	New reached this town I	Monday of the suicide of Al
Chambers, whose home is south of Leban	on, just across the Co	llin county line, the killin	g having occurred e	early Sunday morning. I	t seems that Saturday Chambers, who is a man about 35 years of age, and	whose mother lived w	vith him became despon	dent and tried to ρι	ırsuade his mother to le	t him killer her and then kill himself as life was not worth living. The mother o	dissuaded him from th	ne act and he went off a	nd nothing more wo	as thought of the matte	r until early Sunday morning when Chambers entered his aged mother's roor	m flourishing a .38 cal	libre pistol and declaring	that their end was	near. He then shot twi	ce at his mother but both shots missed, and she took refuge behind his bo	ack, calling all the time	e for help. Chambers co	ntinued shooting ov	ver his shoulder until fiv	e shots in all were fired, fortunately all of which missed the mark. A hired ma	n rushed into the roor	m about this time and Cl	hambers sent the re	rmaining bullet crashing	through his brain, killing himself almost instantly. Despondency is the sole	cause of the trouble	though what caused hin	n to be despondent	has not been found out	as he was in good circumstances, owning a good black land farm and other	property, beside havi	ing money in a bank at N	McKinney. The inter	rment of the man's rem	ains after an inquest was held at the Rowletts cemetery in the afternoon.	-Denton County News	, June 15, 1899, p.1, c.4.

JAILER COBERLY MURDERED. By a Desperate Negro Prisoner. Three Negroes Out. But Are Returned to Their Cells After a Short Chase by the Officers. The Murderer Taken to Fort Worth for Safety. -Floyd Coberly, jailer of the county, and an honorable and peaceable citizen, is dead, the victim of a brutal and desperate black prisoner. George Henry, the negro, is in the Fort Worth jail for safe keeping and under indictment for murder in the first degree. The particulars of the murder, as gathered by the NEWS reporter, are as follows: At about 11:30 a.m., Jailer Coberly went to upper row of jail cells, which are used for negro prisoners, to gather up the dishes. The white prisoners, confined in the lower cells, immediately under the negro quarters, heard noise above of a blow and a fall, and saw Mr. Coberly fall from the upper gallery to the lower floor. He was unconscious when he fell, but was followed by George Henry, a negro prisoner, who dealt him two blows on the head with a stick of wood. After hitting the prostrate man Henry went to the uper cells and immediately came down accompanied by two other negro prisoners, Arthur Gilmore and Will Miller. They went out into the jail office, but Henry returned with a pistol and placed it at Coberly's side as if he intended to shoot him. The white prisoners begged him not to shoot and told him the man was already dead. He turned and went out and all three negroes escaped through the office, down stairs and out of a north window. It is thought that when Mr. Coberly threw the lever to lock the cell doors, while he was in the upper corridor, that Henry left his door slightly open and the bolt failed to catch his lock, and when the jailer stepped in he struck him on the head with a stick of wood, and either knocked or threw him to the floor below. Mr. Coberly had only been appointed jailer a little more than a week before his tragic death. When appointed he lived at Little Elm, at which place and vicinity he had lived a number of years. He was held in the highest esteem by the people of that community as a peacable, law-abiding citizen of strict integrity and sterling worth. Deceased was about thirty-five years old and leaves an aged father, four brothers and a sister, all married, and a majority of whom live in the eastern part of the county. Tuesday the remains of the deceased were removed to the Odd Fellows' hall, being a member of that order, and remained there until about 7 p.m., when relatives and friends started to Little Elm, where the interment took place yesterday under the auspices of the Odd Fellows. -Denton County News, Feb. 25, 1897, p.1, c.2.

LITTLE ELM ITEMS. LITTLE ELM, March 2, '97. -The funeral of Floyd Coberly was largely attended by the people from the surrounding country and neighboring towns. -Denton County News, March 4, p.5, c.2.

The interment of the remains of the late Floyd Coberly in Cottonwood Cemetery at Little Elm last Wednesday afternoon was attended by a very large crowd of people estimated to number about 1,000. The funeral was under the auspices of the Odd Fellows. Besides the members of the lodge at Little Elm the lodges of the order from Lewisville, Denton, Rector and Lone Elm were all well represented. The sad death of Mr. Coberly brought sorrow to the hearts of the people in his home community, and their universal expression was that by it they had lost a good neighbor and warm friend and Denton county an upright and useful citizen. -Denton County News, March 4, 1897, p.8, c.2.

SPENCE HOLDER ACQUITTED. Spence Holder was tried and acquitted in district court last week for the killing of an old man by the name of Cocanougher near Bolivar in 1870. At the time of the killing Spence was 19 years old, and for twenty-four years he was absent from the county without being apprehended, but came back a few weeks ago and voluntarily surrendered. The trial was an interesting one. A majority of Denton's noblest lawyers were employed on one or the other side of the case...During the trial several of Denton's oldest pioneers, and Holder's father, mother, sisters and wife attended as witnesses and friends. The jurty brought in a verdict of acquittal in about two hours after the case was delivered to it. Denton County News, Supplement, Oct. 4, 1894, p.1, c.3.

FOUND DEAD IN HER BED. MISS VEDA COFFEY DIED SOME TIME IN EARLY HOURS OF SATURDAY MORNING. BODY WAS DISCOVERED WHEN LIFE WAS GONE. Young Lady Was Twenty Years of Age - Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Coffey of this Place. Last Saturday morning at an early hour the remains of Miss Veda Coffey, the 20-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Coffey, were found her room at the family home south of the city, she having evidently passed quietly away just before being discovered by relatives in her bed with the face turned to the pillow. The deceased, it is said, was suject to epileptic troubles which may have been the cause of her sudden and most unexpected death. For several days, her parents say, she had been complaining of feeling rather bad, but it was not thought that anything of a serious nature was wrong, so she had been up and around the home the evening before in her usual cheerful mood. Her smaller sister occupied the same bed as she and the little girl did not know of her death until she was awakened by the family when they discovered her sister's death the following morning. Upon discovering the girl in that condition a physician was hastily summoned, but to no purpose, as she had evidently been dead only a few minutes when found, it was evidently a death without struggle, no agony or alarm being heard by the family who were in the room adjoining. The interment and funeral were held Sunday and the former being held at the city cemetery. The parents and relatives of the deceased have the sympathy of the community. -Denton County News, Feb. 14, 1905, p. 2 c. 5

Death of Dr. Cooke. Clarendon, Tex., March 17. - Dr. William H. Cooke died at his home here today after a five days' illness from la grippe and heart failure. Dr. Cooke was born Dec. 22, 1831, in McMinn County, Tenn., and was past 75 years old at the time of his death. He was married to Miss Mary Ann Kantz July 23, 1857. He served through the entire war in the Confederate Army with the rank of Captain. He moved to Texas in 1876 and settled in Denton here several years ago. Dr. Cook had practiced dentistry for more than fifty years and has been a member of the State Dental Association of Texas since coming to the State and was at one time its president. He was a member of the Baptist Church since childhood and of the Masonic order since early manhood. Besides his wife five children survive him, three daughters, Mrs. J. R. Briggs of Dallas, Mrs. Albert Erwin of Denton and Mrs. Margaret McCormick of Clarendon, and two sons, Robert F. Cooke, chief clerk in the superintendent's office of the Texas and Pacific Railway at Fort Worth, and John E. Cooke, editor and proprietor of the Banner Stockman of Clarendon. -Dallas Morning News, March 19, 1907, p.5

COOPER, Chas. Chickasha, Okla. ca 22 yrs old Feb. 24, 1908

KILLED AT CHICKASHA. -Jailer Baker Thursday received a telephone message from Chickasha, Okla., asking information about Chas. Cooper, whose lifeless body was found in the railroad yards there Wednesday night. Cooper was about 22 years old and was arrested in Denton February 24, on a charge of vagrancy. Later he was sent to the county chain gang, and was released March 28. Cooper made a model prisoner here, it is said. He has a sister living at Paris and his parents live near there. -Denton County Record and Chronicle, April 16, 1908, p.3, c.3.

COOPER, Fannie Decatur January 14, 1904

SUCCUMBS TO BURNS. Decatur: Mrs. Fannie Cooper of this place, who was reported as having her clothes burned from her body while starting a fire under a wash pot in the yard Thursday, died that night from the effect of her injuries. Mrs. Cooper was a sister to State Land Commissioner John Terrell, who resides at Austin, also a sister of C. V. Terrell of this place, ex-Senator of the Thirty-first District of Texas. -Denton County News, January 21, 1904, p.2, c.7.

BURNED TO DEATH. Mrs. Cooper of Decatur, a sister of W. E. Terrell of this place, was fatally burned last Wednesday morning, having died within five hours after the accident happened which caused her injuries. Mr. Terrell left Denton in response to the message sent him on the first train, but before he reached Decatur, his sister was dead. Mrs. Cooper was out in the yard, where it seems a fire had been started, and by some means or other her clothing caught on fire and before she knew it she was enveloped in flames. Her mother and sister did all they could to extinguish the flames, and her mother's hands were badly burned. The funeral was held at Decatur Thursday afternoon. -Denton County News, January 21, 1904, p.6, c.3.

HAPPENINGS OF PAST SEVERAL DAYS TOLD IN BRIEF NEWS SPECIALS. MISS KATE COOPER, A PILOT POINT GIRL, DIED VERY SUDDENLY. Pilot Point, Tex., July 1. - (Special)-The people of the town of Pilot Point were shocked on last Wednesday morning when they were informed of the death of Miss Kate Cooper, one of the most estimable girls of the little city, who died suddenly at her home there.

Miss Cooper had been complaining slightly for several days, but nothing serious was thought of her condition, as she had been up town on Tuesday and on the morning of her death.

MRS. CROWDER DEAD. Died at Baird Friday of Pneumonia - Brought Here. >Mrs. Nancy Crowder, mother of C.L.M. Crowder of this city, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Gabe Smatr at Baird, Friday of pneumonia. The deceased was aged 39 years, 11 months, and 7 days. >The remains arrived here that night on the 9:55 train and were conveyed to the residence of C.L.M. Crowder, at No. 59 South Elm, at which place the funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The services were conducted by Revs. Lattimore of the Baptist church and Pierce of the M. E. church, South, after which the remains were interred at the I.O.O.F. cemetery. >Mrs. Nancy Crowder was born in Moore county, North Carolina, February 23, 1818. She came to Texas in 1876, settling in the southern part of Denton county, near Bartonville, and has since resided in this county. >Mrs. Crowder was married in West Tennessee, and six children born of the union are living, four boys and two girls. >Deceased was a member of the M. E. church, South. >Mrs. Crowder has been making her home with her son, C.L.M. Crowder of this city, but had gone for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Smart, at Baird, and it was while there she contracted pneumonia, which caused her death. The Record & Chronicle, Feb. 6, 1908, p.7, c.5.

bought, improved and stocked a g	ood farm on which he has red	ared a large family, amo	ong whom are Jim, Ge	eorge and Ollie, three g	rown sons.
Will Mitchell is another negro v	 vho lives in the neighborhood,	and whose horse had	recently been getting	young Jim Crutchfield's	cotton patch. At 8 o'clock
Tuesday morning Jim and George	Crutchfield met Mitchell near	their home and asked	him to keep his horse	out of the cotton. Mitc	thell replied that if they wanted him out they could keep him out to	hemselves. It is stated that th	e Crutchfield's made a	demonstration of son	ne kind, and then Mitch	nell drew a pistol and fired at Jim striking him squarely in the heart.	He then turned the pistol on	George and fired twice	, the first ball penetra	ting his breast near the	heart and the second going through his bowels.	·
Mitchell started to walk away,	but George Crutchfield had cr	alwed to the dead body	y of his brother Jim an	d secured his pistol wit	h which he shot Mitchell squarely through the bowels. George expir	ed in only a few minutes, and	Ollie Crutchfield, who i	had heard the shootin	g, came up to the scen	e and was fired on by the now prostrate Mitchell whose aim was	bad from the loss of blood, o	r there might have beel	n three instead of two	Crutchfield boys dead.
Constable Fry, who went to the	scene of the shooting, left the	ere late Tuesday night (and said that Mitchell	was very low and was	not expected to live. LATER-News came from the scene of the shooti	ng at 2 p.m. yesterday that N	litchell was dead. -Dei	nton County News, Oc	t. 4, 1894, p.1, c.3.

MORTUARY. DAWSON - Denton, Tex., Fe	b. 21 H. H. Dawson	n died here at 12:15 o'd	clock this afternoon, a	iged 56 years. Death v	vas caused by apoplexy, which struck him at between 6 and 7 o'clock this n	norning, and from wl	hich he never rallied, re	maining unconscious	and recognizing noboo	dy up to his death. The stroke, it is thought, came on him while asleep, as when	n Mrs. Dawson, his พ	vife, got up he was bred	athing stertorously an	d it was only a few mo	ments afterward that his son, Tom, discovered him lying on the bed barely) breathing. Medical	assistance was immed	liately called in, but, a	is stated above, he nev	ver recovered consciousness. Three of his four children were at the bedside. The	e deceased was a pro	ominent citizen of this p	olace, to which he can	ne from Dallas in 1890.	. He was an Alabamian by birth, in which state he received his education. At th	ne time of his death N	Mr. Dawson was gener	al manager for Texas,	Louisiana, Indian and	Oklahoma Territories of the Winship Gin company of Atlanta, Ga. Surviv	ing him the decease	d leaves a wife and fou	r children, to-wit: Mr	s. E. L. Hann and Tom I	H. Dawson of this place, H. H.

MR. W. P. DUNBAR DIES OF HEART FAILURE. Mr. W. P. Dunbar, aged 67 years, a well known and highly respected citizen of Denton, was found dead in bed at his home this city Thursday morning of last week. Deceased had been complaining during the summer from a hurting in his chest though he had kept at work in his shoe shop during the whole time and in fact worked there the day before his death, consequently his sudden demise from heart failure was a sad shock to all. Deceased had lived in Denton the past twelve years and none could number more friends among their acquaintances, proportionately, than he. He was a true friend, kind husband and father, and zealous christian, having been a member of the Christian church for many years. His funeral was conducted by Eld. F. G. Roberts at the grave in the city cemetery at 6:30 p.m., Thursday. To the wife and children who survive the deceased the profound sympathy of the people of Denton is extended. - Denton County News, Aug. 27, 1896, p.1, c.5.

DYCHE, Dollie Ballew? Feb. 16, 1904

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT. Pupils of the Intermediate Department of the Aubrey schools (?) on Death of Dollie Dyche. -Aubrey, Texas, Feb. 22, 1904. -As it has pleased God in his divine wisdom to remove from our midst our beloved pupil and fellow worker, Dollie Dyche, we, the teacher and pupils of the intermediate department of the Aubrey school do hereby adopt the following resolutions of respect. Her willing compliance with the duties and requirements of school life, and her bright, cheerful disposition made her a favorite with both teachers and pupils. We shall sadly miss her from our classes. But her Christian life insures us that she is waiting for the other members of her grade in the bright beyond... (Signed) Maggie Howe, Lucy Stogner, Teachers, and pupils of intermediate department, Aubrey school. -Denton County News, Feb. 25, 1904, p.4, c.4.

The cause of her death was scarlet fever. She was buried Wednesday at Ballew (sp?) county. -Denton County News, Feb. 18, 1904, p.10, c.4.

EADS, Capt. James	Roanoke	IOOF	61 yrs. old	Sept. 11, 1894

County Treasurer Eads Dead. Capt. James Eads, for the past four years treasurer of Denton county and for forty-six years, a resident of the same, passed quietly from this life to the great beyond at 6 o'clock Saturday morning. Deceased had been in bad health for two or three years and for several weeks had not been able to attend to the business of his office, but it was not thought that he was in danger of immediate death, and when the announcement was made it was a shock to the entire city. >Mrs. Eads (nee Haynes), a son and four daughters survive him. Rev. D. C. DeWitt of the C. P. church, of which Capt. Eads has long been a consistent member, preached the funeral services at the tabernacle at 3 p.m. Sunday, after which the remains were interred in the Odd Fellows cemetery. As evidence of the high esteem in which Capt. Eads was held hundreds of friends attended the last respectful rights that could be paid him. -Denton County News, Sept. 6, 1894, p.8, MORTUARY. CAPT. JAMES EADS. Denton, Tex., Sept. 1.-Capt. James Eads, county treasurer of Denton county, and an old Texan, died this morning. He was 61 years of age, was a Missourian by birth and came to this county forty-six years ago, and settled in the southern portion of the county near what is now known as Roanoke. In 1852 he removed to the county seat, which place was then Alton, and remained there until 1857, when Denton was made the county seat he removed here and was engaged as a clerk in a dry goods house, and shortly afterward embarked in business here for himself and afterward removed to Elizabeth in the southern corner of the county, and there was a merchant for several years, from which place he removed back to Roanoke and there was a merchant. His health failing him, he disposed of his business and went to California in 1887, but came back the following year. He served as county commissioner one term ten years ago. In 1890, he was elected county treasurer; was re-elected in 1892, and in the recent primaries was declared the nominee of the democratic party for re-election. He was married in 1871 to Miss Alice Haynes, the daughter of Rev. John Haynes. -Dallas Morning News, Sept. 2, 1894, p.12.

FOUND DEAD IN A TANK. Denton, Tex., Feb. 22. -The body of the 17-year-old daughter of B. F. Early was found drowned in a tank near her father's house near Waketon, fourteen miles southeast of here, yesterday afternoon. She disappeared from home and her long absence alarmed her family, when the search was instituted, with the above result. -Dallas Morning News, Feb. 23, 1900, p.3.

A GIRL SUICIDED. Denton, Texas. February 22. -The 17-year-old daughter of B. F. Early, a well known farmer living near Waketon, in this county, committed suicide by drowning herself in a tank on her father's place. No cause is assigned for the rash act and nothing is known of it until her prolonged absence caused a search to be instituted. The tank was very shallow. -Fort Worthy Daily Gazette, Feb. 23, 1900, p.3.

"EASLEY"	Paradise	70 yrs. Old	April 28, 1883

A Texas Veteran by the name of Easley died at the residence of Dr. M. W. Matthews, in Paradise, on last Saturday morning. He was 70 years old. He was taken sick about one week previous to his death and stopped with Elder Matthews, who was an old acquaintance, as he was journeying in a wagon with two daughters to Thorp Springs to see a son. He lived latterly somewhere on the Red river. -Wise County Messenger, May 4, 1883, p.5, c.3.

MRS. NANCY EGAN'S DEATH. Monday morning, Mrs. Nancy A. Egan was sitting in a chair at her home with her son, G. B. Egan, five miles west of Denton and about 9 o'clock one of the family addressed her and receiving no answer went to her and found that, while sitting there, she had quietly died. Mrs. Egan was 82 years, 8 months, and 11 days old. The body was interred in the family lot in the Odd Fellows cemetery at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, Rev. Ligon conducting the services at the grave.

DEATH OF DR. A. M. ELMORE. Prom	inent Texan and Veteran	Confederate Surgeon F	Reaches End of Useful L	ife. >Ripe in years, ro	unded in character, large in experience and broad in his love of his	fellow men, Dr. Alexande	er Marion Elmore passe	ed quietly away early ye	esterday morning at h	is home on Thomas avenue. At the time there were by his bedside his	wife and his six living chil	dren. News of his dea	th brought expressions	of sorrow from hundr	eds of friends in this city and at
Pilot Point, and from the State in which	h his childhood was passe	ed. >Missouri was his r	native State and he was	born in the eastern p	art of the State of Aug. 20, 1837.
His early education was obtained in th	e town of his birth. At the	e age of fifteen he cam	ne with his father and m	nother to Texas and he	elped them to build their home on
Red River near the present town of Ga	inesville. At that time it v	vas a wild frontier plac	ce and the opportunities	s for even a young ma	n to obtain an education were measured by his efforts and determind	ation. >Early in life he det	ermined to become a p	physician, and being of	studious inclination h	e read at home many of the medical books. Gifted with strong med	ntal powers he understoo	d readily and his mem	ory was always wonder	fully retentive. He wo	as well qualifed later to enter a class under the tutorship of Dr. McKen	zie of Paris, Tex., whose r	eputation as an educa	tor was large. Finishing	g the course at Paris, (a short course brought a diploma in medicine from the St. Louis College	of Medicine. >For some y	ears he practiced. Wh	en the Civil War began	he enlisted promptly	in the Confederate Army and was assigned at once to the hospital corps	of physicians and surgeor	ns. His skill in caring fo	or the sick and wounded	d of the Confederacy v	von him great renown. After the war, with his fortunes ruined he began	າ a new the practice of me	edicine. >On Jan. 1, 18	62,

PITCHER FRANK FARRIS IS DEAD. Denton Boy Who Once Played with Dallas Dies of Operation in St. Paul Hospital. Denton, Tex., July 13. - Word was received here last night of the death at St. Paul, Minn., of Frank Farris, a Denton boy, who has been playing with the American Association team of that city. Appendicitis, for which an operation was performed last week, was the cause of death. Farris was a green country pitcher when he began with the Athletics, but his wonderful speed and for a left-hander unusual control made him pitch the locals to victory in practically every game in which he worked. He attracted the attention of Owner Garnder of Dallas and pitched two seasons there, being drafted by the St. Louis American League team, by which he was sold to St. Paul without a try-out in two successive years. He wokred with St. Louis in the pre-season practice games this year, but never was given a chance in a regular game. He was very anxious to make good this year and to that end kept in training in a gymnasium throughout the winter. The remains will be brought here for interment. -Dallas Morning News, July 14, 1898, p.13

MRS. G. W. FARRIS DEAD. -After an illness extending through nearly two years Mrs. G. W. Farris died at her home near this city last Thursday afternoon and was buried at Krum cemetery on Friday afternoon, Rev. T. F. Charlton, pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian church of this city, of which church Mrs. Farris died at her home near this city last Thursday afternoon and was buried at Krum cemetery on Friday afternoon, Rev. T. F. Charlton, pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian church of this city, of which church Mrs. Farris was a member, conducting the services. Mrs. Farris had been sick many months and throughout her entire illness showed her christian character to have been of the strongest. She leaves her husband and four children besides her many friends who will miss her and cherish her memory. - Denton County News, March 30, 1899, p.1, c.1.

Mrs. W. G. Farris Dead. Mrs. W. G. Farris, the wife of a well known farmer living six miles northwest of Krum, died last Thursday night, aged about 35 years. Death was caused by consumption. Mrs. Farris had been sick for months and had just returned from a six months trip with her husband to Mexico for the benefit of her health. Seeing the end approaching, Mr. Farris brought her home. The interment took place at Krum cemetery. Rev. F. J. Charlton of Denton officiating at the services. -Record and Chronicle, March 30, 1899, p.5, c.1.

Killing at Pilot Point Last Night. News has just been received here that a drunken row during the democratic ratiication in Pilot Point last night resulted in the killing of John French by a drunk man by the name of Walter Vowel. >French lived in town and is a young man of excellent character, and when it was learned that he had been killed a crowd gathered with the intention of hanging him, but sheriff Mars arrested Vowel and hid him out and lodged him in the Denton jail this morning. The artery of French's left arm was severed and he bled to death. -Denton County News, Nov. 17, 1892, p.3, c.5.

"On Wednesday night abo	ut 10 o'clock, after the crowd had o	dispersed from the rat	ification a sad affair oc	curred in the saloon a	t the northwest corner of the square in which a young man	, John French, was killed. A numbe	er of young men some	of them drinking, were	in the saloon scuffling	g and boasting. A collision ensued between John French and Wa	alter Vowell, in which French was st	tabbed in the left arm	with a knife, severing a	n artery. Vowel was	at once arrested by Deputy Sheriff
Spangler. French was taken t	to the drug store of Dr. Ragland, w	ho in a very few mome	ents stopped the flow o	f blood. Other physic	ians were sent for and the artery tied, but the loss of blood bef	ore reaching the drug store was so	great the patient san	k rapidly and died in ab	out two hours.
Vowel whose home is near	Mustang this county, was turned	over to Sheriff mars, v	vho was in the city and	taken to Denton on t	he 6:28 morning train and placed in FRISBIE or FRISBY, Mr.

NAME LOCATION CEMETERY BIRTH DATE DATE	DATE OF DEATH	CITATION

A stranger in the town of Sunset borrowed a shot gun late yesterday evening and going into a cotton field near, killed a man by the name of Frisby, without any provocation as yet known. Frisby was in Alvord several times not long since, and claimed to have been but recently married. His wife was stopping at the Simmons' hotel while he was passing to and from our town, but he never ate there, was in the company of his wife but little and it was observed by some that he acted quite strangely. The stranger as he started to the field remarked that he was going to kill a man, and when he came back declared that he had killed him. -LATER: The stranger did not borrow a shot gun but used a pistol and did not return to town but made his escape and is not yet arrested. -Alvord Messenger, Oct. 5, 1883, p.4, c.4.

-J. D. Jackson, a school teacher of this county, gave us a brief call on Tuesday. He says that Frank Frisbie, who was murdered last week near Sunset, was at one time a student of his and that he was a civil quiet young man, not disposed to be quarrelsome. It is said that the man who so foully murdered Frank Frisbie last week is from Hutto, Williamson county. His name is J. T. Womack, and he is described as being heavy set, six feet high, blue eyes, black mustache, light complexion and wore a light sack coat and pants. In going to Sunset to execute his murderous purpose, he got off the train at this place and hired a $90 horse from Mr. Ellis, which has not been returned. The thief and murderer is yet at large. -Alvord Messenger, Oct. 12, 1883, p.3, c.3.

FRITZLEN, E. K.	Denton	IOOF	Mar. 16, 1893

MR. E. K. FRITZLEN DEAD. Our readers will doubltess remember the notice the NEWS gave of Mr. E. K. Fritzlen's departure for Philadelphia several weeks ago where he went for medical treatment. Thursday his Denton friends were shocked at receiving a telegram that he had died that day in the above named city. His body accompanied by Mrs. Fritzlen arrived at 5:20 p.m. Monday and was buried in the Odd Fellows cemetery at 10 a.m. Tuesday. The funeral was conducted by both the Knights of Honor and Knights of Pythias local lodges, he being a member of each order. Deceased was a longtime business man of Denton and left some valuable property yet in this city. He had only one child, Clifford, a son about 18 years old who is now living in Davenport, Neb., but who was present at the funeral. Denton County News, March 16, 1893, p.3, c.4.

MRS. D. H. FRY DEAD. -Mrs. D. H. Fry died at her home one and a half miles north of town at 7:30 Saturday morning. Mrs. Fry had been in bad health for a long time and last winter contracted a case of la grippe which terminated in a lung trouble, the latter being the immediate cuase of her death. The maiden name of Mrs. Fry was Emma White and she was born in Illinois, though with her father's family she came to Texas when she was only a little girl. She was forty five years old last February and leaves a husband and eight children, five boys and three girls, to mourn her irreparable loss. Mrs. Fry was a member of the M. E. church and under its auspices was buried at the city cemetery at 11 a.m. Sunday. A long concourse of sympathetic friends attended the last sad rites with the family. -Denton County News, July 13, 1893, p.3, c.4.

AN OLD LADY DIES SUDDENLY. -Mrs. Rebecca Fry, a seventy-eight years and six months old, died at about 9:30 Tuesday evening. Mrs. Fry, though in some measure an invalid for the past two years, was apparently as well Tuesday as she had been for a long time and ate a reasonably hearty supper. She retired early and at 9 o'clock aroused an attendant and told her she was sick and wanted a physician. Dr. Lipscomb was immediately sent for, bud had only gotten in the house when she expired. The doctor attributed the sudden death to a general failure and debility which often occurs in old age.

Deceased was the widow of L. M. Fry, who came from Tennessee to Denton in 1849 and where he lived until his death. Mrs. Fry was the mother of thirteen children, ten boys and three girls, nine of whom, all boys, are yet living. Of these, nine, Thos. T., D. H., Alex, J. F. and W. S. live at Denton. The other four live in Tennessee, Illinois, Missouri and Texas. -Denton County News, April 20, 1893, p.2, c.3.

PASSING OF A VETERAN. -Denton: Thomas T. Fry, an old veteran and one of the most prominent old timers in Denton county, died at his home near Old Alton a few miles south of the city, Friday last. Mr. Fry was a brother of W. S. Fry, city marshal of Denton. The remains were interred in the Olt Alton cemetery Saturday afternoon, the funeral oration being delivered by Rev. S. K. Hallam of the Hickroy Street Christian church, Denton. -Denton County News, Aug. 13, 1903, p.6, c.1.

FRY. Thomas T. Fry, one of the pioneers of this county, died at his home about four miles south of Denton last Friday, having nearly reached his three score and ten, the allotted age of man. It being one of his last requests to be buried by Confederate veterans, the local camp here went to his home, took charge of his remains and laid him to rest in the cemetery at Old Alton. The services were conducted by Rev. S. K. Hallam of the Christian church of West Hickory street. The deceased was a brother of Marshal W. S. Fry of this city. -Denton County News, Aug. 13, 1903, p.8, c.3.

BODY FOUND ENTANGLED IN DRIFT IN MORRIS CREEK. BODY OF GEORGE FULLERFOUND IN CREEK WEST OF PONDER. SWEPT OFF HORSE BY HIGH WATERS. And Being Unable to Swim was Drowned - Search Found his Body Entangled in Mass of Drift Wood. -The dead body of George Fuller, aged about 25 years was found Monday afternoon about 2 or 3 o'clock entangled in a mass of driftwood in Morris branch, a small stream in the western part of the county beyond the little town of Ponder. The indications were that death had occured about twenty four hours earlier. Fuller has this year been living on the Emory Wilkins place near Ponder. It being too wet to work Monday, he saddled a horse about two o'clock and started to visit at the home of a Mr. Potter on the Burnett ranch, a few miles distant, and across Morris branch. That night Fuller did not return home, but it was thought by his family that he had decided to remain over night with the Potters and nothing was thought of his absence. Tuesday morning members of Potter's familynoticed a loose horse with a saddle grazing in the pasture and began an investigation. The horse was recognized as belonging to Fuller and was carried back to Fuller's home, where it was learned that the young man had left there the preceeding day to go to Potters. As the horse when found was near the banks of the branch, the searching party immediately went there to make investigations. A short distance below the crossing were the tracks of the horse where it had scrambled out of the water and onto the bank but there were no signs of the missing man. The search was continued down the creek and about a half mile below the crossing the body was found. One of the searchers in walking along the bank of the creek saw Fuller's fingers and a portion of the hand rising above the water at the edge of a pile of driftwood. The body was found entangled in the drift and considerable difficulty was had in bringing it to the ban. It was known to some of those in the searching party that Fuller was unable to swim and it is surmised that he attempted to ford the creek and was swept off his horse by the high waters. Morris branch is only about twenty or thirty feet wide, but since the recent rains it has been much higher than usual and the current was very strong. Fuller evidently misjudged the depth and power of the water or trusted to his horse to get him safely across. George Fuller was reared in Denton county and was known to most everybody in the western section of the county where he had been for several years. He was, as stated above about 25 years old. He was single and had been living this year with his father on the Wilkins farm. Funeral services were held Wednesday and the body interred in the Aikens cemetery. -Denton County Record and Chronicle, April 16, 1908, p.1, c.1.

A STRANGE AND INFECTIVE DI	SEASE. IT SPREADS LIKE WILD I	FIRE. Its Fatality to a F	Portion of Wise Coun	nty. By W. W. SAbout	the 1st of November, '82, in the family of Frank Fulton, living on L	Denton creek, about 9 miles nor	theast of Decatur, Tex	as, a strange diseas	e took effect. Mr. Fultor	n and wife were first taken; it being rather a slight attack, a doctor w	as not summoned. They procee	eded with their daily b	usiness, and the dise	ease gradually grew wor	se, they consulted their friends but with not avail; doctors could give	them no relief. Soon others we	ere similarly affected,	but no relief to them	could be given, -Wise	County Messenger, June 8, 1883,

Father of Mrs. W. C. Wright of Denton. Had Been a Resident of Denton County for Over Half a Century- Masonic Burial. John W. Gober, one of the original pioneers of this section of the state and for a half a century and over a resident and highly respected citizen of Denton county, died at his home on West Hickory street in this city yesterday afternoon at 3:40 o'clock, after an illness lasting for several weeks from pneumonia. Mr. Gober at the time of his death was 78 years, 11 months, and 9 days old. Six children surive the deceased, all of whom were present at his death except one, Mrs. Curry of El Dorado, O. T., who was unable to reach Denton. Among the children who survive the deceased is Mrs. W. C. Wright of this city. There are also a large number of grandchildren and other relatives. The funeral arrangements which were announced this morning have been set for this afternoon at 2 o'clock and will be held at the residence on West Hickory street. Mr. Gober had been a lifelong member of the Masonic lodge, being it is said, one of the few living charter members of Stanfield Lodge No. 217 of this city, under whose auspices the funeral services will be conducted. -Denton County News, February 24, 1905, p.1, c.2

J. C. GORE KILLS HIMSELF. Dead Body Found in Field Near Home with Bullet Hole in Forehead. Deceased Had Suffered with Consumption for Some Time - Target Rifle the Weapon Used. -The dead body of J. L. Gore was found at Corinth Thursday afternoon about 5:30 o'clock with a bullet hole in the forehead and a twenty-two calibre rifle clasped in one hand. Mr. Gore was about forty years old and had a long time been a sufferer from consumption, having been so sick lately that he was barely able to [unreadable] around. Several times he had threatened to take his life and Thursday morning told members of his family that he intended shooting himself. About 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon Gore took his target rifle and started for the field telling his wife that he was going to shoot a bird. At 5 o'clock he had not returned and a search was begun, which ended with the finding of the dead body. Gore's body was found about 25 yards from the residence and the indications were that he had shot himself soon after leaving home. A bullet hole was found in his forehead and his head was lying in a pool of blood. The rifle was laying under one leg and across the other, with one hand clasped about the barrell and the muzzle pointing toward the dead man's head. It was said by members of the family after the body was found that the deceased had several times intimated that he contemplated suicide and that on Thursday morning he said something about shooting himself. Little attention was paid to the remarks, however, as it was not thought that he was speaking seriously. Ill health, though had weakened his mind and the fact that his family was in destitute circumstances also probably had something to do with causing the rash act. The Gore family moved to Corinth about christmas time and lived on the Barne's place with Mrs. Lehman, Gore's mother-in-law. Last year the family lived on the Frank Rayzor place north of Denton. Justice of the Peace William McCormick Friday went to Corinth and viewed the remains. Acting as coroner he returned a ver

A SAD ACCIDENT. A Little Boy Killed by Being Thrown From a Cart. -Little Ellis Gough, aged 13 years, was fatally hurt three miles east of Little Elm, his home, last Thursday.

Ellis had taken a Miss Wolf in her home near Rockhill in a cart and was returning to Little Elm when the deplorable accident occurred. No one knows just how it happened, as there were no eyewitnesses, but the general supposition is that the horse became frightened at a hayrake on the roadside and began running and kicking and kicked Ellis off the cart. He was found by a passer-by unconsious, his skull fractured and his body badly bruised. He was taken home and lived until Thursday, but was never rational. He died in great pain.

His remains were buried at Cotton Wood cemetery Friday. J. S. Gough is his brother and Mesdames Drs. Rogers and Carpenter, of Little Elm, his sisters. Ellis was a gentlemanly little fellow and his death is deeply deplored by the entire community. —Denton County News, July 26, 1894, p.8, c.4. GRABBE, Mrs. S. GRABBE, Mrs. S. GRABBE, Mrs. S. MAJOR GREENLEE'S DEATH. Denton, Tex., Sept. 17. - Major B. E. Greenlee, a member of an old and prominent family here to-day, aged 76 years. The deceased was born in South Carolina in 1821, moving when a young man to Mississippi. In 1850 he settled in Arkansas and in 1866 moved to Texas, settling at this place, then a rough border town. Since then he has lived here. Major Greenlee also served in the confederate army with distinction. Surviving him are four children, all of whom are grown, C. M., B. E., and Robert Greenlee and Mrs. C. A. Williams. -Dallas Morning News, Sept. 18, 1897, p.2.

COURT DOINGS. PROBATE DOCKET. Will of B. E. Greenlee probated and recorded, and C. M. Greenlee reappointed temporary administrator; bond fixed at $7000.

SAD DEATHS OF TWO BABIES. GREENLEE. -Ethel Hasseltine, the beautiful fourteen-months-old infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Greenlee, died at 2:30 p.m. Sunday. The little sufferer had been sick eleven days, the trouble being a dysentery peculiar to infants, and which it was not strong enough to wear away. The interment was in the Odd Fellows cemetery at 4 p.m. Monday. The services were conducted at the residence by Rev. Cole, assisted by a male quartette. -May 10, 1894, p.8, c.5.

GREENLEE, Mrs. B. E.	Denton	IOOF	born in 1830	Feb. 15, 1897

AN OLD PIONEER DEAD. Denton, Tex., Feb. 15. -Mrs. B. E. Greenlee, a member of one of the oldest and most prominent families in town, died at 1 o'clock this morning, aged 67 years. The deceased was born in Mississippi in 1830, and here she met and married Major B. E. Greenlee, who still survives her. In 1849 this couple moved to near Lewisville, Ark., living there until just after the war, when they moved to this place, where they have lived continuously since. In dying Mrs. Greenlee leaves four children, three boys and one girl (Mrs. C. A. Williams), all of whom were at her bedside at the time of her death. -Dallas Morning News, Feb. 16, 1897, p.6.

MRS. GREENLEE DEAD. -Monday morning after a long illness, Mrs. B. E. Greenlee died at the family home. The remains were interred in the Odd Fellows' cemetery, Rev. O. S. Thomas conducting the religious services. The news of Mrs. Greenlee's death was received with genuine sorrow by her numerous friends. She was an early resident of Denton, an estimable lady, an earnest Christian, and a member of the M. E. Church South. She leaves a husband and four children - Mrs. C. A. Williams and three sons. -Denton County News, p.1, c.4.

Ben. Oliver, editor of the Lewisville Times, was in the city last Monday, in attendance on the Funeral of Mrs. B. E. Greenlee, who was buried at 5 p.m., on that day. -Denton Monitor, Feb of 1897 (found on reel of miscellanous newspapers on microfilm)

MORTUARY. GREENLEE -Denton, Denton Co., Tex., Feb. 16. -The procession which followed the remains of Mrs. B. E. Greenlee to the Odd Fellows cemetery yesterday afternoon was very long. The servics were conducted at the house of Rev. O. S. Thomas. -Dallas Morning News, Feb. 20, 1897, p.5.

NEGRO KILLED AT DENTON. Another Negro Surrenders Claiming Self-Defense. SPECIAL TO THE NEWS. Denton, Tex., Feb. 11. -Bob Griffin was shot and killed shortly before noon today at a wood camp near Mingo, this county, by Jim Roberts, who later gave himself up to the officers. Roberts alleges self-defense. An inquest was held by Justice of the Peace McCormick. The first that was known of the occurrence was when Roberts entered the store at Mingo and told of the killing, and asked that the officers be notified. He was later brought here and placed in jail. Both parties are negroes. -Dallas Morning News, Feb. 12, 1905.

Tribute of Respect. >Your Committee appointed to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of this Lodge in regard to the death of Bro. JAMES HAMNER, who departed this life on the 8th inst., submit the following: >Again has an impressive warning come to teach us all that "in the midst of life there we are in death." But a few short weeks ago he bid as fair for long life and usefulness as any of us. But, alas! he is gone. His seat here is vacant; his voice is to be heard on earth no more. >Resolved, that by the death of Bro. HAMNER, our community has lost one of its best citizens; Pilot PointLodge one of her best members, and that his bereaved family have been deprived of a kind and devoted husband, and a fond and indulgent father. >Resolved, That while we bow in humble submission to an all-wise Providence, we deeply sympathize with his bereaved family in their irreparable loss.

Resolved, that as a mark of respect, the Lodge Room be draped in mourning, and that the members wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days. >Resolved, that these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the Lodge, and published to the Houston Telegraph; and that a copy of them be presented to Mrs. HAMNER, with the assurance that this lodge fully recognizes the high claims she holds upon it as the widow of a worthy Master Mason. -F.D. A TERRIBLE DROWNING. THREE EXCELLENT PEOPLE MET DEATH IN DENTON CREEK SUNDAY - BODIES RECOVERED. -One of the saddest accidents in the history of the county occurred at the crossing in Mr. P. Harmonson's pasture on Denton Creek Sunday morning. Peter Harmonson and wife, and little Miss Belle Taylor aged 10 or 12 years were all drowned.

Mr. and Mrs. Harmonson and ?-months-old baby boy and the little girl started to Denton Sunday morning in a two-horse buggy. They intended to spend the remainder of Sunday and Sunday night with Sheriff Hawkins family and attend to some business Monday and return home. Mr. Harmonson lived only a quarter of a mile on the other side of the creek and when he drove off the house he asked Joe Smith, who was working on the farm, to come to the creek and see them safely across. The creek was up a little from the rain of the previous day, but was not past fording.

The buggy reached this side of the creek in safety, but in coming up the bank which was wet and slippery, the horses slipped and Mr. Harmonson urged them forward and the single trees broke. This released the team from the vehicle and it ran back down the bank. Mr. Harmonson jumped out and grabbed the tongue and pushed the buggy to the opposite side of the creek where the front of the bed dipped under, and Mrs. Harmonson becoming scared jumped into the water and Mr. Harmonson went to her rescue, at the same time calling to Mr. Smith to catch the ?. As Smith jumped into the water the carriage was upturned by the swift current and the little Taylor girl was then washed out. When last seen Mr. and Mrs. Harmonson were struggling in deep water and had hold of each others arms. Smith jumped in and caught the grip and at the same time felt something strike his side. He reached down and brought up Mrs. Harmonson's baby and the ?up he turned the latter loose and waded ashore where he the baby to lie.

A NOTABLE DEATH. Colonel Jac	k Hays, The Texas Ranger, Go	one Over the RiverSo	nturday afternoon Co	lonel Jack Hays, the Tex	an ranger, died at his residence near Piedmont. He had been sick f	for a long while, and his deatl	h was not unexpected.	Colonel John Coffer	Hays was a native of Wi	lson county, Tenn., where he was born in 1817. He was bred on a fa	rm, but at the early age of 18	Byears he struck out fo	r Texas and enlisted	under General Sam Hou	ston. When Texas was made independent by Houston, the range	ers were organized. Afterwa	rd, when the state was	admitted to the Uni	on, a small regular army	was organized from this well-tried band, and Coloney Hays was	placed in command. At the o	outbreak of the Mexica	n war he led the rand	gers, who did very effect	rive work, especially at the battle o

HENDRIX, Bud	Vineyard City		Sept. 9, 1884

Vineyard City, Jack Co., Tex., Sept. 11th, 1884. Our town was thrown into considerale excitement on the evening of the 9th. Mr. John Read shot and killed Bud Hendrix. Hendrix had some slighty talk about a young lady, who was boarding here from Wise county, which caused a little row some two weeks ago. Some one wrote Mr. Hendrix a note to leave Jack county, which made Hendrix mad, and on the 9th Hendrix went to Mr. Read's and asked Mr. Read if he knew anthing about the note. Read said he did not. Hendrix said some of the citizens had threatened to run him off, but he would make it d_d hot for them, and drew his pistol. Read got up and went and got his shot gun and come to the door. Hendrix backed off from the door with his pistol presented. Read came to the door the second time when Hendrix fired but missed him, then Read fired and killed Hendrix. Four shots took effect, one in the right arm, two in the right side and one in the forehead just above the right eye killing him instantly. Read had a preliminary trial yesterday and was placed under a bond of $2?00. We hop it will stop here. Wishing the MESSENGER success, we remain, etc. W. D. Swanson. -Alvord Messenger, Sept. 19, 1884, p.6, c.3.

HENN, Antone "Tony"	Denton

TONY IS DEAD. One of Denton's Oldest Landmarks Passes Away a Victim of Old Age and La Grippe - Was 75 Years Old.

"Tony" is dead. One of the most unique characters that ever resided in the town of Denton passed away Monday night at the home of George Miles in this city. Since the time whereof a memory of man remains not in the contrary. "Tony" had walked the streets of Denton existing on pension received from the government for service in the war of Mexico and in the federal army during the civil war. He was well known to every man, woman, and child in Denton up to a year or so ago, when he gave up his life of wandering around the town and became a recluse spending his last days with Mr. Miles, to whom he?? Uncle John Ewan, who had contributed to his support up to the time of his own death a few months ago.

There are many interesting stories connected with the life of 'Tony,' who had lived a little more than man's alloted three score years and ten. He was always of a conservative turn of? And seldom spoke of his past life, never than to the happenings of the? of Denton. One of stories? which has been vouched for by a number of citizens is to the affect that? fifteen? years ago Tony walked all the way to Little Rock, Ark, and? on account of a joke perpetrated him by Denton parties. He bitterly resented the joker, but on returning home persued the even? of his,? for the balance of life, attending strictly to his own affairs. Peace?? -Denton County News, 03-24-1904, p.1, c.1.

Decatur, Feb. 12. -About 8:30 o'clock last night Sam Rockwall, a stone mason by trade, acting as deputy marshal, shot Joe Highland, a cook, three times, killing him instantly. The facts as elicited at the coroner's investigation show that Rockwall had been drinking during the day that day. About 8 o'clock he called at Highland's residence to see a Mrs. Weisman, who was there. Rockwall and Highland had some words when Rockwall drew two six-shooters and wanted Highland to take one and fight him, which he refused to do, but ordered Rockwall to leave the house. As he did not go, Highland went to one of the neighbors, and after telling them about his trouble, asked ...when Rockwall drew two six-shooters and wanted Highland to take one and fight him, which he refused to do, but ordered Rockwall to leave the house. As he did not go, Highland went to one of the neighbors, and after telling them about his trouble asked for a gun. They had no firearms, and advised him to go and report the matter to the sheriff, and have Rockwall arrested. Highland started for town, going by his house, when opposite, he called to his wife asking what his (Rockwall's) name was. Mrs. Highland came out and told him and also said he had just left. Highland started for town, saying he would report him to the sheriff. About five minutes afterwards, three shots were heard. Rockwall went to jail and gave himself up, saying he had killed a man in self defense and showed some slight cuts on his outside coat. Highland's body was found about 150 yards from his house, with two bullet holes in his breast, one in the back of his head, with a small Barlow knife in his hand which had the appearance of having been put there by Rockwall. This idea was strengthened by finding Highland's knife in his pocket unopened. Highland was about seventy years old and leaves a wife and two children. Rockwall has a family. His wife gave birth to a child yesterday. - Alvord Messenger, Feb. 15, 1884, p. 3, c.3.

THE DENTON FIRE. Three Pe	ersons Arrested Charged as Ir	ncendiaries and as Having	Caused the Death of Co	ol. Hitchcock-Great Fee	eling Prevails. Denton, Tex., Aug.
26The fire and tragic death v	which occurred here yesterda	y morning is still the all-ab	sorbing topic. New de	velopments have serv	ed to convince the people that it was the work of an incendiary,	, and it is believed by some th	nat Col. Hitchcock was mur	dered before being bu	rned in the building, bu	ıt this belief seems to have very little foundation. Marshal W.S	ŝ. Fry, who has been very acti	ve and persevering in mak	ing up the case, arrest	ed three men on the cl	narge of arson and murder last night. J. T. Gideumb, R. R. Fair	n and S. W. Keating, the parti	es are all brothers-in-law.	Fain is the proprietor of	of the hotel, Keeting th	e former proprietor and Gideumb, who boarded at the house, wa	is carrying on an implement k	ousiness in one of the room	s below. Fain and Gid	eumb have both made	statements since their arrest which, taken together, are said	d to implicate all three of the	parties. The examining tr	al has progressed rath	er slowly to-day, noth	ing being done except to take the square discussing the probable	e motive, etc., of Col. Hitchco	ck's death, and it is believe	d that should it becom	e known that he was f	irst murdered the guilty parties would certainly be visited with	າ speedy justice at the hands ເ	of his numerous friends. A	ll seems to be quiet to-	night. The parties cha	rged are well guarded in the jail.

BURNED TO DEATH IN A HC	OTEL. DENTON, Texas, Aug. 2	6 - Fire was discovered yes	terday in the kitchen o	of the James Hotel, a t	vo-story brick structure. The proprietor, seeing the flames v	were beyond control, had the	guests aroused. Col. A. J.	Hitchcock, a Texas vet	eran, was awakened a	nd started from his room, but lost his way and ran into the flame	es. After a long search his cho	arred body was found in th	e ruins to-night. He w	as one of the survivors	of the Fannin massacre at Goliad in March, 1837. He was 73 ye	ars of age, a native of Georgi	a, and leaves a large estat	e. The total loss by fire	e was $10,000, partly (covered by insuranceNew York

A PROMINENT FARMER DIES AT CAR
lackson, Sr., one of the most prosperou		s of this end of Dallas c	ounty, died at his hon	ne two miles north of th	is place this afternoon, after less han 24 hours' illness, at the ripe old ag
He was one of the early settlers and	owned considerable pro	perty. He is survived by	ı a wife and six growı	n sons. He was extreme	ly active for a man of his age and superintended his large farm.

The Mr. Jackson referred to in the above special was a near relative of former county commissioner W. N. Jackson who is well known in Denton. The Jackson family is one of the oldest and perhaps the largest family in this part of the state, they having come to this country from England at an early date. The Jackson family reunions have of recent years been an event to which hundreds have looked forward. -Denton County News, July 22, 1904, p.5, c.4.

DEATH OF MRS. LACY. One of the Early Settlers of Texas Dies at Age of 82. Fort Worth, Tex., Feb. 13. -Mrs. Sarah E. Lacy, a pioneer Texan, aged 82 years, passed away here this morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lulu Wheelers, after a lingering illness. The deceased was the mother of a most interesting family, and her husband, who died many years ago, was prominent in early Texas politics, and entertained at different times leading public men of the State, including Gen. Sam Houston, former gov. James W. Throckmorton and numbers of other lesser lights. Col. and Mrs. Lacy came to Texas in 1854 from Mason County, Ky. Mrs. Lacy's maiden name was Miss Sarah Brown and she was a granddaughter of Gen. William R. Reed of that county. By a coincidence she and her husband were admitted into the Baptist church at the same time in Mason County by Rev. Helm, who was known as Squire Helm, who afterward married them. Mrs.Lacy and her husband, Col. Charles C. Lacy, first located at Birdville, the old county seat of this county and Col. Lacy was elected Surveyor for the Denton District, which at that time included a great portion of Northwest Texas, defeating Senator A. G. Walker. He appointed as his deputies the late Col. John Peter Smith, June Smith and Frank Wilcox of this county and Col. Lacy was elected Surveyor for the Denton District, which at that time included a great portion of Northwest Texas, defeating Senator A. G. Walker. He appointed as his deputies the late Col. John Peter Smith and Frank Wilcox of this county. In 1858, after the land district had been abolished, he was elected County Surveyor of Denton County, when the county seat was at old Alton. The family removed to Denton town in about 1857 and was one of the first to build a home there. In 1872 the home was added to and converted into what was known as the Lacy Hotel, a place made famous in North Texas for the many politicians who stopped there. The structure was a large two-story frame bank building, which Postmaster D. A. Robinson of Dallas made his office for many years. In about 1882 the hotel burned and was never rebuilt. Thirteen children were born to Col. and Mrs. Lacy, the surviving ones being W. J. Lacy of Denton, Hon. W. D. Lacy of Waco, Mrs. P. C. Withers of Denton, Mrs. A. H. Tandy of Woodward, Ok., and Mesdames Flora Birrd and Lulu Wheeler of this city. Six great great-grandchildren survive the deceased. The remains will be interred at Denton. -Dallas Morning News, February 14, 1905, p.7

himself in the head with a target rifle. The evidence at the coroner's inquest before Esquire Hopkins Wednesday was that he and his wife were unable to get along together. He came to Denton Tuesday morning and while he was away his wife took their baby and went to her mother's home. He tried to induce her to return home and being unable to do so committed the rash act which ended his life. -Denton County News, July 29, 1897, p.1, c.1.

Old Negress Dead. SPECIAL TO THE NEWS. Justin, Tex., Feb. 7. -Old Aunt Minerva McConnell, colored, a centenarian, who has lived in this neighborhood almost since the first settlement of the county, died today at the home of her son-in-law, Lon McCarty, four miles west of Justin. Aunt Minerva was a household word with all the Reynolds and Harminson children, the oldest settlers of the west end of Denton County, quite a number of whom went this evening to attend her funeral at the Aiken Cemetery. -Dallas Morning News, Feb. 8, 1906, p.11.

MCCONNELL, widow of Alf Denton Jan. 28, 1900

Burned to a Crisp. Denton, Tex., Jan. 29. -The widow of Alf McConnell, colored, suffered a miserable death at the county poor farm, of which she was an inmate, yesterday, her body being in the fire by which the house in which she lived was consumed. >The woman is said to have been slightly deranged for a number of years, but, as her aberration was of an innocent kind and considered incurable, she was sent out to the poor farm to spend the remainder of her days, a small house separated from the other buildings on the place being given her for her exclusive use. >About 11 o'clock yesterday morning flames were discovered coming from the house, and, fanned by the stiff norther blowing, the fire had enveloped the entire structure before the men on the place could get to the scene. Sleet and snow were falling also, which made the work doubly hard, and the house was almost entirely consumed before the fire was got under sufficient control for any of the men to venture in. The negress was found charred and burned all over and life was extinct when the body was taken out into the open air. >The cause of the fire is not known, unless it caught from the stove inside. The pecuniary loss is small. -The Dallas Morning News, Jan. 30, 1900, p.8.

MRS. LAURA E. McCOOK DEAD. Passed Away Suddenly Monday Morning at Her Home. -The entire town of Denton was shocked Monday morning to hear the sad news of the death of Mrs. Laura Ponder McCook, which occurred suddenly at 8 o'clock at the family residence on Sycamore street. Mrs. McCook had been slightly ill for about six weeks. The funeral services were held at the family residence Tuesday afternoon by Dr. W. C. Lattimore, followed by interment at the Odd Fellows' Cemetery. -Denton County News, Jan. 14, 1904, p.1, c.7.

LITTLE FRANK MCCRAY DIED MONDA	Y NIGHT. Eldest Child o	f Mr. and Mrs. W. J. M	cCray of This CityT	The death of little Frank	McCray, the small son of Mr. and
Mrs. W. J. McCray which occurred Mond	ay night is one of the so	addest items we have h	ad to record in severo	al months. Little Frank v	was a bright boy on whom the affection of his parents, relatives and frie	ends were alike centere	d. On several days he i	had been hovering on	the brink of death, and	yet his taking away fell as a swift and terrible blow to all.				-
The funeral which was held on Tuesdo	ay afternoon was a sad	and tearful one and the	e procession which fo	llowed the body to the g	grave moved in sorrow. The interment was held in the Odd Fellows' c	emetery after the fune	ral services which were	held at the home on	North Elm street by the	family pastor, Elder S. K. Hallam.
The jewelry storey of Mr. McCray and th	e drug store of J. F. Rale	ey were closed all day 1	TuesdayDenton Cou	inty News, Dec. 30, 190	4, p.3, c.5.

MCKENZIE, Hugh		IOOF		Nov. 7, 1895

A RESPECTED CITIZEN GONE. Last Thursday afternoon Mr. Hugh McKenzie died at his home in this city. Mr. McKenzie had been a citizen of Denton county since 1856, nearly 40 years, and had twice filled the responsible office of county treasurer to the satisfaction of his constituents. He spent the greater part of his time as a resident in Denton county near Lewisville, moving to Denton in 1866 where he has since lived. Mrs. McKenzie and five children survive deceased. The remains were interred in the Odd Fellows cemetery Friday afternoon. The funeral sevices were conducted by Rev. J. B. Cole at the grave by the Odd Fellows lodge of which the deceased was a member at his native home in Mississippi before he came to Texas and he assisted in organizing the first lodge of that order in this county in 1857. Sul Ross camp, the local Confederate organization, also marched in a body to the grave and paid its last repsects to an honored member. "Uncle" Hugh McKenzie, as he was familiarly known, was a loyal citizen, a true friend and an affectionate husband and father and demise is universally regretted by all his qcquaintances. - Denton County News, Nov. 14, 1895, p.4, c.2.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT. Sul Ross Camp, No. 129, of Denton, at a called meeting passed the following resolutions of respect on their deceased member, Mr. Hugh McKenzie:

WHEREAS, It has pleased Almight God in His infinite wisdom to call our beloved comrade, Hugh McKenzie, from our midst to pass over the river to rest under the shade of the trees in the bivouac of the dead; and in token of respect for our deceased comrade we wish to commend his virtues to the living by giving a short sketch of his life and acts while living.

Our deceased comrade, Hugh McKenzie, lived to be 63 years old; was born in North Carolina, raised in Carrollton, Carroll county, Mississippi; came to Texas in 1856; enlisted in the Confederate army in December, 1861; captured at Arkansas Post and carried to Camp Douglass, Illinois; he was then exchanged at City Point, Va.; then transferred to the army of Tennessee; elected orderly sergeant; participated all through the Tennessee campaign; prompted to Sergeant-Major at dalton Ga.; slightly wounded at the battle of Chicamauga, in the Missionary Ridge battle and in all the engagements that his command was in the Georgia campagin; under Johnston to Atlanta, Ga., at which place he was seriously wounded on the 21st day of July, 1864, which wound forever disabled him as a soldier. Brave and courageous, always at his post of duty, and always ready to obey orders without a murmur. As a citizen, his virtues appeared equally as prominent. He was twice elected county treasurer of the county. He was an efficient, painstaking officer, scrupulously honest, cheerful and accomodating. As a neighbor his chief object was to better his fellow man, and if any difficulty arose he always appeared as peace-maker. In our camp he was always in the front rank of duty. May we all try to imitate his virtues.... -Denton County News, Nov. 14, 1895, p.4, c. 3.

Sherman, April 18Miller, the r	nan shot by Butler Carpenter,	died this morning at 5	o'clock. An autopsy	was held and two bulle	ts found. They were so battered that it can not be ascertained whe	ther they are of the same cali	ber or not. Miller chai	ged that he was fired	on by both of the Carp	enters, while Carpenters say only one of them did any of the shootin	g, and some weight will be giv	ven to the balls being i	the same size, as he c	laims that he was struc	k by each, and if of different

MONTS, Emily W.	Denton	61 yrs. Old	Sept. of 1867

OBITUARY. DIED at the residence of her son Wm. H. Monts, in the town of Denton, Texas, September 1867, of Dropsy of the heart, Mrs. Emily W. MONTS, aged 61 years. Mrs. Mounts was a daughter of John Z. Noble of Eastern Virginia, and closely related on her mother's side to the Alexander and Washington families of that State. -Marrying at an early age, she settled in Brooke county, West Virginia, and there remained until the year 1843, when she removed with her family to DesMoine county, Iowa. Residing there until 1846 she again removed to Hopkins county, Kentucky, and from thence in the fall of 1855 emigrated to Texas. While in Iowa a domestic affliction cast the care, education and support of a large and helpless family of children upon her individual exertions, seven of whom still live to mourn her loss and bless her memory.

From early childhood, she has been a consistent, pious and worthy member of the Cumberland and Presbyterian church and after years of excruciating suffering, borne with christian fortitude, she calmly fell asleep in full confidence of a glorious resurrection beyond the grave. Loved and respected by all who knew her the grief of her children for her loss finds a sympathic cord in many a heart. W. -Dallas Herald, Oct. 5, 1867, p.2.

A correspondent from the Mon	itor, writing from Decatur, giv	es an account of a sad c	accidenton the 30th	ult.: Miss Sue Oats, in t	the prime and gaiety of youth, enjoying the pleasures of life to he	ope's fullest fruition, on her ret	turn from a nuptial feas	t, fell from her horse	and was killed almost	instantly. The party had stopped at the house of a neighbor, and w	hen invited to remain to rema	in until the next day she	replied, "I am going	g home this evening." S	She started, in company with a male friend, full of mirth and joy.	Riding at a rapid gait, and ma	king a sudden turn in th	ne road, her saddle t	urned to the right, thro	wing her on top of a stump. She survived probably half an hour, ar	nd did "go home" - not that ho	me to which she had all	uded, but to that wh	nere none "are given in	marriage, " and where accidents

JUDGE F. E. PINER DEAD. Prominent North Texas Lawyer Expires During an Operation for Cancer. Denton, Tex., Dec. 13. - Judge Finis E. Piner, one of the most prominent citizens of north Texas and as a lawyer and jurist known throughout the State, died at the family home on West Hickory street here shortly after 12 o'clock today. Death came in the progress of an operation for cancer. It was hoped by removing a large part of the lower jawbone his life might be saved. Judge Piner was born in Obion County, Miss., Dec. 4, 1837. With his family he came to Texas in 1856 and in 1858, returning to his native State, entered the law department of the University of Mississippi, from which he was graduated with honors only a few months before the breaking out of the Civil War, into which he immediately went, as color-bearer of Bompany H, Fifteenth Mississippi regiment. He taught school at Honey Grove until 1866, when he was appointed County Attorney, but was almost immediately removed by the reconstruction laws, in the movement against which he became one of the State leaders. E. J. Davis, the reconstruction Governor, about this time advertised to speak in Denton, accompanied by a strong quard of soldiers, and it was given out that no one would be allowed to answer his talk. Taking the lead, Judge Piner began his preparations to answer Davis' talk and when the time came and Davis had concluded, Judge Piner mounted the rostrum and backed by a small crowd of armed friends, he gave the reconstruction Governor such an excoriation that he not only made, no move to prevent the talk, but abruptly left. In 1873 he was elected District Attorney, serving until his election to the State Senate in 1876. In 1878 he made an energetic race for Congress from this district, but after a hot campagin was defeated by a small margin by Olin S. Welborn. In 1884 Judge Piner was elected Judge of the Sixteenth Judicial District retiring in 1888 to again take up his private practice. The deceased was married in 1864 to Miss Elizabeth H. McCleary and there are six children surviving, as follows: Mrs. Alice Cowan, lately of Knoxvill, Tenn., but now of Denton; Miss Julia Bain of New mexico, Dr. Frank E., Miss Eula L. and John R. Piner of this city and Mrs. W. J. Simmons of Terrell. Either defending or prosecuting, Judge Piner took a prominent part in many of the most famous criminal cases in the annals of north Texas. The fuenral services will be held tomorrow aftertnoon with the internment conducted by the Masonic lodge at the Odd Fellows' Cemetery at 4 o'clock. -Dallas Morning News, December 14, 1900, p.7

YOUNG MAN DROWNED. Walter Piner Meets With a Sad Fate While Fishing in Milam Creek. -The people of Denton were never more shocked than on last Thursday afternoon when it was reported that Walter Piner was drowned in Milam creek, five miles north of town. The news was brought in by Lou Grafton. Immediately, a large crowd left for the scene, one among the first being a brother of the deceased, Dr. Frank Piner. On arriving at the creek they found several of the neighboring farmers, who had been informed of the drowning by mr. Grafton before leaving for town, at work dragging the creek, but with no result. These were joined by the party from Denton, several going into the water. The body was soon found by Tom clark in about eight or nine feet of water and only a few feet from where Walter is supposed to have fallen in.

As soon as possible, the body was conveyed to the ffamily residence, friends going ahead to break the terrible news to the unsuspecting mother and family. Judge Piner was absent on a business trip and was informed at Dallas, by a telegram, of his loss. He did not reach home until 11 p.m.

The facts, as best we can gather are as	follows: On Wednesd	lay afternoon Walter F	iner and Lou Grafton	went out to Milam cre	ek for a fishing trip remaining ove
he night. They had good sport and a very	y enjoyable time but a	bout 12 o'clock they se	parated to look at the	eir set books which was	s the last ever seen of Walter aliv

While the actual particulars of his drow	vning will never be kno	own, an examination o	f the banks where his	body was found leads	to the conclusion that in the act o and his drowning so close to the bank is a	n evidence that he mu	ist have been stunned	by the fall.

Walter Piner, youngest son of Judge an	nd Mrs. F. E. Piner, was	s born in Denton, Augu	st 18, 1873, and was i	nearly 23 years old at t	he time of his death. He was aised to manhood among our people and	d it can be truly said th	at no young man in th	e town was more univ	ersally popular. He ha	d an exceptionally bright and ictive mind, impulsive and warm hearted,	; polite to every one. I	He was highly accompl	ished and educated, h	aving graduated in the	e Denton High School and receive he A. B., degree from the North Texas No	ormal College. He, afte	er finishing his course,	had been a constant d	and retentive reader in	most branches of science and terature. But the best thing we can say o	of him is that he was a	ı true Christian. He wa	s a member of the Cu	mberland Presbyterian	church, part of the time serving
he ministry, but lately had turned his atte	ention to law, studying	g under his father, with	every prospect of spl	endid success in his cho	osen profession.

The train was north-bound and arrived at Denton at 4 o'clock and those on the train did not know until then that their train had dispatched a human life to another world. But while waiting here Engineer Flood, while oiling and looking over the engine, discovered on the pilot blood, brains, long hair and part of a woman's under garment. Sheriff Mars happened to be at the depot at the time and telegraphed south to ascertain where the killing had occurred. The answer came that another freight coming north had found the remains of a girl on the trestle across Denton Creek three miles north of Roanoke.

QUINN, Michael	Big Springs			Dec 20, 1886
Deadly Affray at Big Springs. B	IG SPRINGS. December 20A	bout 12:30 this morni	ng another horrible	killing took place here. W	/illiam H. Lessing, a prominent lawyer of San Angelo, who has be	en attending court here, shot d	and killed Michael Qui	nn, a bartender at o	ne of the saloons. The pa	rticulars, as learned to-day, are:
The parties had some trouble, cau	sed by gambling, which culmir	nated in Lessing being	driven out of doors	by Quinn at the point of a	weapon. Lessing then went to a livery stable, procured his shotgun	and returned to the saloon. A	As he stepped inside th	e door, Quinn seein	g the gun, drew a 45-calil	ber revolver and fired, striking
Lessing in the hip and making an ເ	ugly wound. Lessing then fired	and, owing to the sho	ort distance betweer	n himself and Quinn, abou	it twenty feet, the shot took effect with a terrible result, the whole ch	narge entering just about the r	ight eye and literally t	earing away the top	of his head. The body of	Quinn, which presented a sickening sight, was removed to th	he undertaker's where it now li	ies awaiting burial. Hi	s home was formeri	ly in Abilene, Texas. Lessi	ng was assisted to his room at the hotel, and is now resting easy, bei	ng guarded by a deputy sherifj	f. This makes the third	l killing which has o	ccurred in Big Springs dur	ing the past eight monthsWise

S. MORTON ROBERTS. Well Known and Popular Young Business Man Died Last Thursday - Remains Shipped to Missouri. -S. Morton Roberts of the firm of Roberts & Elder. Proprietors of the Denton Steam Laundry, died at the home of W. B. McClurken on West Hickory street Thursday morning of last week, after only a brief illness from pneumonia and measles. The home of the deceased was in Mexico, Mo., previous to his removal to Denton some time ago, and the remains, accompanied by the father of the young man were shipped to that place Thursday afternoon. During Mr. Roberts' brief residence in this city, he had, by his quiet unassuming manners and open, honest methods in business, won a lot of friends who were all deeply grieved at his untimely death. The laundry was closed Thursday on accounty of the sad occasion. -Denton County News, March 3, 1904, p.7, c.3.

ROBERTS. W. B.	Denton			June 22, 1886

SHE KILLED HER TRADUCER. A Texas Woman's Revenge for Alleged Slanderous Boasts. >Mrs. G. G. Lyles, wife of a saloon owner of Denton, Texas, a handsome blonde but 22 years of age, created a sensation by shooting ex-Deputy Sheriff W. B. Roberts, killing him instantly. About 3 o'clock the afternoon of June 22nd, Mrs. Lyles deliberately walked up to Ball & Poe's livery stable on the public square, where Roberts was chatting with the town idlers gathered there, and put two balls in his neck and one in his head. Two more shots were fired at him but without effect. They were not needed, as Roberts was already dying. Mrs. Lyles, having got her man cooly turned away and walked off. >Her demeanor was that of a person who had decided to do a thing and having done it was satisfied, but her bloody work was not a mad freak nor the result of sudden anger. She had prepared a statement in writing to the effect that Roberts had lied in boasting of too much intimacy with her, and armed with this and a freshly loaded pistol she sought Roberts the first opportunity she had. She gave him warning by twice requesting him to sign the Instrument in writing. She was calm and firm and remarked that he had better do what was safe for him and sign the paper. He refused with the result stated. >The fact that Roberts has a young wife and two children and that Mrs. Lyles has two children, throws more startling interest around the shooting. Mrs. Lyles refuses to talk except to say that the traducer of her good name had timely warning to make reparation. -National Police Gazette; July 10, 1886.

sickness and death was caused by an abscess. He leaves a wife and one little boy to mourn his loss. MYSTERIOUS MURDER.	Body of Robert San	oples Found in the Woo	ds. Last Friday aftern	oon. Newt Hurst di	scovered the partially	decomposed body of a man in the woods about six miles northeast of Roanoke and two and a half miles west of the Double Oak school house. The body proved to be that of Robert Samples who lived in the Double Oak community, about two miles from the place where it was found. A gun shot wound and appearances about the locality indicated that the man had been killed. An inquest by Esquire Selby, of Roanoke, returned a verdict that deceased had been killed by unkown parties. A man by the name of Davis was placed in jail here Sunday charged with the killing. Davis was sub-renting from Samples some land and the last seen of Samples he was in charge of Davis and other parties, who had arrested him for the alleged stealing of some harness. They claim that he escaped in the night. -Denton County News, June 10, 1897, p.4, c.2.

A Most Grewsome Mystery. A Dead Man Found and the Inquest Verdict Was That He Had Been Murdered. Denton, Denton Col, Tex., June 5.-What on its face appears to be a mysterious and diabolical murder, has come to light near Roanoke, about eighteen miles south of here, and was reported here to-day. In looking for some horses yesterday afternoon Newt Hurst, a farmer, found in a secluded spot the body of a man, which was afterwards identified as that of Robert Samples, a well digger. The body had evidently lain there for some time, as the head was almost bare and other parts of the body had been torn away and eaten by buzzards, which were still flying overhead about. The last seen of Samples was May 27. When found the body was lying under a tree, on the limbs of which, directly overhead, were marks as if a rope had been drawn roughly across them. Nearby were wagon or buggy tracks, from the stopping place of which a heavy body had been dragged, and about thirty or forty yards still further away was found a pool of blood that had been covered up with dirt. In the right breast was a large hole and the entire skull was almost entirely denuded of flesh by decomposition and the buzzards. The clothes were nearly torn off the body and the hat lay nearby. 'Squire Selby at Roanoke held an inquest, the verdict being that deceased had been killed by parties to him unknown. The authorities here have been notified and are working on the matter to-day. The people in the community in which the deed was done are much worked up over the matter. - Dallas Morning News, June 6, 1897, p.1

DEAD MAN FOUND. On Friday eve a dead man was found by Newton Hurst in the woods two and a half miles west of Double Oaks in this county. The body was partially decomposed, and was id'd as that of Robert Samples, of that place. Evidence showed that the man had been murdered, and the verdict of the coroner's inquest was to that effect. A man named Davis is in jail charged with the murder. The last seen of Samples, Davis had him under arrest, for the alleged theft of a bridle. Davis says the man escaped while he slept. -Denton Monitor, June 12, 1897, p.8, c.3.

taken by him. Every effort was mo	ade to save Capt. Sawyer's lif	e, but he only revived o	once and then only lon	g enough to say that he	e believed he had taken some morphine.
The deceased was in many way	rs an eccentric though aggree	able and ever congeni	al character. He was l	born in New Hampshire	83 years ago, came to Texas in an early day and to Denton in 1869. I	He had recently become penr	niless and had frequent	tly intimated that he v	vould end his own life, o	and his death was not a surprise to many. He was a Mason and was b	buried by the members of the	Denton lodge in the O	odd Fellows cemetery S	Sunday afternoonDe	nton County News, Jan. 31, 1895,

The 14-months-old child of Mr. Joseph Sipper, who lives three miles northeast of town, met with a fearful death Wednesday by being scalded. The mother had poured boiling water into a pan on the floor and as she turned to put the kettle back on the stove the child fell into the pan and swalled sufficient of the boiling water to cause death in a short time. -Denton County News, Aug. 8, 1895, p.2, c.5.

SIZEMORE, JAMES (Rev.)	Fort Worth		in 1837	Oct 26, 1885
Rev. James Sizemore. This Brother	died in Fort Worth on Mor	day, Oct. 26. Born in	Tennessee in 1837. N	larried Miss Julia Hutto	n at Burnsville, Miss., Aug. 15th, 1869; after coming to Texas he joined	l the Rehobeth Baptist chu	rch in Fannin county, ir	n 1871, and was imm	ediately after his baptis	sm set to work in the ministry as missionary. In 1873 he moved to Wis	e county and labored exte	nsively in Wise and Jac	k counties and others	on the frontier until his	s health failed; he then moved to Tarrant county, where Mrs. Sizemore	engaged in teaching and h	ne still did what he cou	ld in missionary work	. Finally under failure o	of health, he moved into Fort
Worth for treatment by the physician	s, and remained until his d	eath a member of the	First Baptist church e	steemed and loved by h	nis pastor and many friends.
Brother Sizemore's death was a rema	rkably bright and triumpho	ant one. He had sacrifi	iced health and wealt	h to the cause but has i	now gone where his treasures ar laid up safely for him and where he w	ill be a rich man foreverm	ore, and enjoy the pres	ence and glory of the	Great King. He leaves	a widow to mourn his loss and a nephew, who will soon take his place	in the minstry. Pastor in T	exasWise County Me	essenger, November 1	!4, 1885, p.7, c.2

CONFEDERATE VETERAN DEAD. Gen. Sorrel Served with Distinction During the War. Roanoke, Va., Aug. 11. -Gen. G. Mozley Sorrel, aged 64, of Savannah, Ga., died at the home of his brother near Roanoke last midnight. Gen. Sorrel entered the Confederate army at Savannah as volunteer aid on Lognstreet's staff at the outbreak of the Civil War. He was promoted several times for gallantry, and in the third year of the war was made a Brigadier General on Longstreet's staff. He was shot through the lungs at the battle of Sharpsburg. After the war he was made Superintendent of the Central Railway of Georgia. He relinquished that position seven years ago to accept the general management of the steamboat line plying between Savannah, New York and Liverpool, which office he held at the time of his death. -Dallas Morning News, August 12, 1901, p.1

Sad Death of Mrs. Tabor. Wife of State Health Officer Tabor Died Last Saturday In City of Austin. Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Williams. Deceased was Raised in this City and Had Many Dear Friends Here. Leaves Two Children. >A message which was received in Denton Saturday afternoon announced to the relativess and friends residing in Denton the death of Mrs. George R. Tabor, wife of State Health Officer Tabor, of Austin. The news came as a shock, as Mrs. Tabor had been ill only a few days and her condition had not been considered very serious until Friday afternoon when in response to information received here her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. C.A. Williams, left to attend her bedside. > The deceased was a daughter of one of the oldest families in Denton county, and was reared in the town of Denton, where here lovely character and charming personality had won for her a host of friends, who are deeply grieved to hear of her death. She was married to Dr. Tabor in 1892 and two children are left besides the devoted husband and father to mourn her untimely loss. > W. W. and Bula Williams, brothers, and Mrs. W. C. Edwards, a sister, left Saturday to be present at the funeral which will be held in the state capital. - Denton County News, May 3, 1904, p.8, c.3.

charged jointly with his step-son, Sam	n Johnson, with the murde	er of Prof. Thweat of the	at place nearly four ye	ars ago. Young Johnso	n was acquitted at his first trial, but the jury in the campbell case coul	ld not agree. The second t	trial resulted in a light s	sentence for the defend	dant. A new trial was g	granted and the case came up for trial at the present term of court. The	e evidence adduced the fa	ct that Campbell and tl	hweat had previously l	had trouble, which ever	ntually grew into a neighborhood fuss, the friends of each party taking	sides. There was talk of m	nany threats and count	er-threats and on the	night of the killing Prof	Thweat approached the Campbel

WAGGONER, D.				Sept. 5, 1902

Widow, Children and Grandchildren Are Provided For. Decatur, Texas, January 1. -The last will and testament of D. Waggoner, the cattle king, who died in Colorado on the 5th day of September last, was today filed for probate, together with the application of W. T. Waggoner, the only son of the deceased, to be appointed as executor of said will. The will provides that Mrs. C. A. Waggoner, wife of the deceased, have a life interest to the Waggoner homestead, and at her death same to revert to W. T. Waggoner. It provides further that Mrs. A. B. Wharton, daughter of W. T. Waggoner and graddaughter of said deceased, have what is known as the Waggoner Denton creek ranch, on the line of Wise and Denton counties, consisting of something near 3000 acres. The will further provides that the two grandsons of said deceased, Guy and Paul Waggoner, when they arrive at the age of 21 years, are each to have an equal share in the ranch owned by said deceased in Jack and Wise counties. The will further provides that W. T. Waggoner, son of said deceased have all lands lands owned by said deceased in Wichita, Wilbarger, Clay and Lamar counties in the State of Texa; lands in Wise or any other counties in Texas or in the United States not otherwise disposed of. Also that he have all live stock of every kind and description. That said W. T. Waggoner also have all bank stocks, and that he have all shares in corporations and factories owned by said deceased at the time of his death. The will further provides that W. T. Waggoner be appointed sole executor of said will without bond and that nothing be done in the courts further than the probating of said will. The Houston daily post, Jan. 3, 1903, p.7.

Temple: Fred Weaver, the 19-year-old son of Will Weaver, a well-known farmer living close to Heidenheimer, was handling a target rifle while seated around the fire with the family. Pointing the gun at his sister, his father told him not to do so. The boy replied that the gun was unloaded, in attempting to look through the barrel, a cartridge was exploded and a ball entered the boy's right eye, penetrating the brain and causing instant death. -Denton County News, Feb. 18, 1904, p.2, c.2.

recovery was abandoned. He con	tinued to sink, and this morni	ng expired. Having bee	en notified that the wo	ound was likely to prove	fatal, the injured man's statement was taken by the Coun	nty Attorney yesterday and wil	l be introduced at the p	oreliminary hearing of	Josephine Walker, the o	defendant, which is set for tomorrow at 2 o'clock. The negre	ess was originally charged with	h assault to murder and	d placed under a bond	of $500, but the charge	e against her has now been changed to murder. In his ante-n	nortem statement the decease	ed alleged that he had l	been in the city only a	bout twenty-five minute	es when he was shot. He came from Denton that evening, he say	s, and was passing in front of	the colored woman's h	ouse, when she accos	ted him, and as he turne	ed she fired one shot, which struck him in the pit of the stomach. It v	vas a case of mistaken identit	y it is claimed. Counsei	l for defendant will en	deavor to prove that the	e shooting was an act of self-defense. There were no eyewitne	esses, but it is claimed that the	woman had trouble w	ith a white man a sho	rt time before the affra	y and fled from her house to a

DAYLIGHT REVEALS SCENE OF STORM WRECKAGE IN COOKE COUNTY. MANY PERSONS HURT. BETWEEN TWENTY-FIVE AND THIRTY INJURED IN DESTRUCTION OF HEMMING. AID SOUGHT FOR VICTIMS. People Homeless and Penniless and Relief Committee Asks That Help Be Give. Pilot Point, Tex., April 28. - A visit by The News correspondent to the scene of the Hemming cyclone shows it to have been one of the worst storms that has ever visited this section. The fact that the village of Hemming was small, containing about seventeen houses, accounts for the deaths being limited to five killed outright, for every house in the village was completely destroyed. The tornado struck Hemming on the west and followed a due course through the village, destroying as it struck them the homes of Will Davis, Charles Morris, Rev. Smith, John Reese, Dr. Riley, John Neil, B. R. Newton, G. Boydston, H. Wilkins, Mr. Tillery, Charles Swindell, Dock Dobbs, Mrs. Westbrook and J. D. Strickland. It also made kindling wood of the Christian Church, the school house and Emerson & Alexander's store and gin, entailing a loss of approximately $40,000. Not a vestige of the place within the limits of the storm's path remains. A relief corps was hastily formed here last night and assisted by physicians, who did heroic work all through the night, the sufferers were removed to John Alexander's home, which escaped the storm, and it was converted into a veritable hospital. They received such attention as was possible. Supplies were hastily gathered up by the local relief committee and were forwarded asfast as possible to the stricken people, but they were far short of the demands and wholly inadequate. The dead have been buried and the wounded have received medical attention, but they are homeless and penniless, as most of the sufferers were of moderate means and lost their all. The News correspondent has been requested to advise the people generally through the papers that outside aid is earnestly requested. All donations of any character should be sent to Ad Alexander, Pilot Point, chairman of the relief committee. The dead: ANNA BOYSTON, aged 6 years, GEORGE BEAVERS, aged 14, LEONA NELL, aged 7, WILL ALEXANDER, aged 16, H. WILKINS (baby), The wounded, more or less seriously: Dr. John Riley and family, consisting of nine members. John Nell, Mrs. Nell, Albert Landers, Dillon Beavers, Mrs. Jennie Boydston, Morill Boydston, John Alexander, Howard Wilson, Mrs. Tyson, Mrs. Tyson, Henry Wilkins, wife and two children, Jill Boydston, The Leach family, Jessie L. Dowson, and Mrs. Ben Newton. -Dallas Morning News, April 29, 1907, p.1

HEMMING WIPED OUT. Hamlet Since Tornado of Saturday Afternoon Has Ceased to Exist. Denton, Tex., April 28. -Five persons were killed and between twenty-five and thirty were injured in the tornado which wiped out the hamlet of Hemming, in Cook County, late yesterday afternoon. The town is eight miles northeast of Pilot Point, off the railroad, and telephonic connection was cut off by the storm putting the wires out of commission. News of the storm reached Pilot Point via telephone from Bloomfield, and a rescue party, consisting of almost every physician in the town of Pilot Point and about fifty citizens, went immediately to the scene. The path of the storm was about 250 yards wide and covered a scop of territory about five miles in length. A phenomenon about it was that instead of from southwest to northeast the path of the storm cut directly east and left havoc and destruction in its wake. The dead: Willie Alexander, aged 12, a son of John Alexander. Painter Wilkins, a small son of Henry Wilkins. Leona Nell, aged 6 years. ______Boydston, aged 7 years, daughter of G. G. Boydston. Grover Beaver, aged 15 years, son of F. D. Beaver. Of the twenty-five or thirty injured, most of them are from cuts and bruises from flying timbers, but two or three of them are thought to be fatally hurt. Among the worst hurt is John Alexander, whose son was killed. In addition to the fatalities at Hemming, one man named Nichols is reported to have been killed east of Valley View. The town consisted of four stores, a gin, a blacksmith shop, two churches and a schoolhouse and railroad building, and was utterly destroyed except one of the churches, which has been converted into a temporary hospital wherein the wounded are being cared for. A full list of the injured will not be obtainable before tomorrow, when the rescue party is expected to reach Pilot Point with those most seriously hurt. -Dallas Morning News, April 29, 1907, p.2

NEWS. Greenville, Tex., May 12 - Col. W. A. Williams died at 12 o'clock last night at his home, 134 East Park avenue. The funeral services were held at the home at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon, after which the remains were buried in East Mount Cemetery. Mr. Williams was born June 22, 1846, near Bonham, and while he was a small boy his parents moved to Tyler. His father, John M. Williams, held the office of Sheriff and Tax Collector of Smith County twelve years. Mr. Williams was married to Miss Elizabeth Murphy in 1865 and by this union there were born three children - John, Henry W. and Margaret, now Mrs. Quigley. His wife died in 1877 and in 1879 he married Miss Wynne of Wills Point, sister to Col. R. M. Wynne of Fort Worth and Hon. Buck Wynne of Wills Point, both of whom were with Mr. Williams at the time of his death. By the second union there were six children born - W. A. Jr., Annie, Minnie, Linna, Loraine and Wynne. Col. Williams was elected Clerk of Van Zandt County in 1875 and held that office at the time of the famous Van Zandt war. In 1878 he and Asa Holt established a bank at Wills Point and Mr. Williams was also in the general merchandise business at that place. In 1881 he organized a bank at Pilot Point and in 1887, with A. Cameron, J. W. Rainey and others, he organized the Greenville National Bank, which he has conducted successfully ever since, and of which his son, Henry W. Williams, is now cashier, a position he has held several years, and W. A. Williams Jr., another son, is one of the assistant cashiers. The institution is now known as the Greenville National Exchange Bank and Mr. Williams had been president of it many years prior to his death. He was taken with pneumonia two or three months ago and had never fully recovered, and heart trouble also ensued. All of his children were at home at the time of his death, as also were his sister, Mrs. N. A. Eason, and his brother, F. J. Williams of Garden Valley, in Van Zandt County. Al the business houses of the city closed during the funeral services

WILLIAMS, Frank	Kingsland, AR		ca. 20 yrs.	July of 1897

RAISED IN DENTON COUNTY. -The Fordyce (Ark.) Forum reports the killing of a young man named Frank Williams at Kingsland, Ark., Monday of last week. He was riding between two box cars and fell under the train. His leg was crushed so bad that amputation was necessary and he died from the shock and loss of blood. The paper gives this description:

"Williams was about 20 years old and nicely dressed. He was in hard luck and was making his way to Texas, where he hoped to get employment. He said that he was raised in Bartonville, Denton county, Texas, and that his parents were dead. The good people of our town contributed enought to give him a nice burial and was buried Tuesday morning in the cemtery. -Denton County News, July 29, 1897, p.4, c.2.

WILLIAMS, Guy	w of Denton	City	4 yrs. Old	Sept. 6, 1893

DIED-Guy, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Williams, aged four and a half years, died at their home four miles west of the city at 3 o'clock yesterday morning, after an eleven days siege of tonsiletus. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. De Witt at the home yesterday afternoon and the remains were buried in the city cemetery at 5 p.m. The bereaved parents have the sincere sympathy of the NEWS in this sad affliction. -Denton County News, Denton County news, Sept. 7, 1893, p.3, c.2.

DEATH OF PROMINENT CITIZEN OF AUBREY. Obituary of J. T. Williams Written for The News.

Once more the Death Angel has visited our community and taken from us our friend and relative J. T. Williams. Though Mr. Williams had been sick for a number of years, having been under the care of a doctor almost continuously for three or four years, his death at this stage of his sickness was a surprise to us all. During the last three weeks his general condition had so improved that we had hoped for his recovery.

The writer and others had visited him on the day of his death and he was cheerful and talkative. He read a great deal that day having read several chapters of the Bible. We were with him about two hours before death came and were greatly shocked when the news of his sudden death reached us.

At early bedtime he said to his devoted wife: "I feel a little drowsy and if you will bathe my feet I believe I will go to bed a little early tonight. She bathed his feet and helped him to bed as she had often done before. Hardly had she gotten the cover fixed before she noticed a change had taken place and being alone she ran in her stocking feet to Mr. J. H. Goods who lives about one hundred yards away for help. He passed away before anyone could get there.

Mr. Williams was a devoted Christian and a member of the Mustang Baptist church. He was 55 years of age, and leaves a wife, two daughters, two sisters and two brothers to mourn his loss. Both daughters are married. The two daughters, a brother and the wife were all of the family that were able to attend the funeral. A brother and sister live in Denton and another brother and sister live in Missouri.

He died January 10, 1905, and was buried on Sunday afterward at the Ballew cemetery. It is hard to give him up but we must submit to the will of the One who doeth all things well. May God's richest blessings rest upon the bereaved ones. -Frank Boner. -Denton County News, Jan. 20, 1905, p.2, c.4.

J. WILLIAMS KILLED. FORMER EDITOR OF THE CHRONICLE MURDERED AT ARDMORE I. T. Shot Down in the Street by C. B. Douglass, a Policitian, on Account of an Humorous Article Which Appeared in His Paper. James Williams, well known in this county, and for a number of years editor and proprietor of the CHRONICLE, was shot and instantly killed last Monday at 9:15 on the streets of Ardmore, I. T., by C. B. Douglass, a politician and aspirant for office. As the people of Denton county have shown so much interest in the death of Mr. Williams, we reproduce the entire article said to have caused Douglass to commit the terrible murder. The article was written by another man named Silliamn, who is correspondent for the Dallas News, we understand, at Ardmore. It was published merely as a joke....The Chronicle, June 11, 1897, p.8, c.1 (from an reel of miscellaneous Denton County newspapers on microfilm)

B. E. Greenlee and Mrs. C. A. Williams, who were at Ardmore when the murder of James Williams occurred, returned home with the remains. -Denton Monitor, June 12, 1897, p.8 (from a reel of miscellaneous Denton newspapers)

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT. -At a meeting of Denton Fire Department the undersigned committee was appointed to draft resolutions of respect to the memory of our honorary member, James Williams, who was suddenly removed from the walks of life by the hand of the murderer, in cold blood and without warning, take this method of expressing our horror at such a foul murder, committed without sufficient provocation; Resolved, 1. That this company and the entire community have been robbed of a genial, wholesouled gentleman and useful citizen, whose loss is irreparably severe. 2. that the maledictions of this entire community will rest upon the relentless perpetrator of this mad act, and thus leave him with the goadings of an outraged conscience to haunt him to his final reward, and allow him like "time, ruthless time, to gave upon the ruin he has wrought." 3. That a good family has been heartlessly robbed of a loving protector and adviser in the beginning of life's battle when his counsel is most needed. (J. Ed Schmitz & J. W. Massey). -Denton Monitor, June 12, 1897. (from a reel of miscellaneous Denton newspapers)

FOULLY MURDERED. A Chinese Laundreyman's Head Crushed While at Work in His Laundry. Some one or ones perpetrated a heinous, mysterious and certainly unprevoked murder in Denton Monday night or Tuesday morning. Tom Bentley, a young man who works at the Alliance Mill started to work at a few minutes before 7 o'clock Tuesday morning and as he had some shirts at the chinese laundry, he concluded to go by and get them. the laundrey is in an old law office that once stood at the southeast corner of the square, but which was some years ago moved on the vacant lot on the south side of East Oak street, belonging to Mrs. Nannie Kowalty. For several years it has been occupied by chinamen, and for the past few months by Jim Wing. When Bentley arrived the front door was closed but not fastened. He knocked a few times, but the Chinaman did not respond. He went to the window on the west side of the door and saw him lying on the floor, but thought that he was asleep. He again knocked on the door but to no avail. He then pushed upon the door and saw that Jim Wing's head, was in a pool of blood. Bentley hastened to the square, spread the alarm and a number of people were soon on hand, among them a NEWS reporter.

The Chinaman was lying on his back, his	head under a shelf	that contains bundles of	f laundered cloths, a sli	pper was on his right	foot while his left slipper was lying in the center of the floor. A lamp was still b	ourning over his iron	ning table, by the side of	which he had fallen. C	On this table was his a	account book and clothes, checks.
His book was open, a pencil was on it and s on the back. A car coupling pin covered wit	th fresh rust was on	the floor and the gener	al supposition is the wo	ound were made with	this. The first and general belief was that he was murdered and then robbed			•	•	- him and for what purpose are an unsolved	mystery. Some thin	ık it was in a difficulty ov	ver a washing, but as tl	he coupling pin must l	have been the weapon, it seems that the deed was premeditated. Others to	hink it possible that	he was a member of the	e chinese Highbanders	and that he was murd	dered for secret divulgence. On the other hand if robbery was the intention	, the robber was cei	rtainly not rewarded wit	th much booty.
